

Buy Your Holsteins in Oxford County, Ontario

"THE HOLLAND OF AMERICA"

We have selected this year for our annual fall sale seventy-five of the choicest things we have ever offered at any of our thirteen semi-annual club sales. These are consigned by the same breeders that have made the Oxford sale the outstanding club sale in all Canada. At the recent Canadian National Exhibition, Oxford County herds won 75 per cent. of all prizes awarded to the breed, and at London, the week following, only two ribbons in the whole show went to herds outside Oxford County. These herds produce show individuals, and also combine production. Oxford

County herds at present hold the Canadian championship for yearly production in both the three-year-old and the four-year-old class, second place in the two-year-old class and fourth place in the mature class. The first 33-lb. cow in Canada was also Oxford bred and owned. Much of this same blood is strongly represented in this sale, and of the fifty-three females selling nearly all are young cows, either fresh or near freshening at sale time. The 22 young bulls include a number of real herd sire prospects. If you want Holsteins bred for type and production come to

WE BREED FOR YEARLY PRODUCTION

We have at present several choice young bulls, nearly all of which are sired by our own herd sire, King Lyons Colantha, whose six nearest dams average 30.10 lbs. of butter for 7 days. These youngsters are all from good yearly record dams and great individuals—probably as strong a lot as we have ever bred. Come and see us also for females.

Spice of Life.

The teacher, a lady of uncertain age, was trying to teach Paul the names of the kings of England.

"Why, when I was your age," she said, disgustedly, "I could recite the names of the kings backward and forward."

"I don't doubt that," returned Paul, "but when you was my age there wasn't so many kings."

An old lady, wishing to pay a compliment to the preaching of a new vicar, told him:

"Really, sir, we didn't know what sin was until you came to this parish."

A Scotch minister in need of funds thus conveyed his intentions to his congregation:

"Weel, friends, the kirk is urgently in need of siller, and as we have failed to get money honestly we will have to see what a bazaar can do for us."

We editors may dig and toil
Till our fingers-tips are sore,
But some poor fish is sure to say,
"I've heard that joke before."

Chaff.

Jane: I'm not so crazy about Harry any more.

Lizzy: Why not?

Jane: Because he knows so many naughty songs.

Lizzy: Does he sing them to you?

Jane: No, he just whistles the tunes.

The clergyman of a poor parish was showing a rich lady round, hoping to touch her heart and so receive a big cheque for his people.

"We are now passing through the poorest slums," he said, as the car turned into a side street. "These people have little to brighten their lives."

"I must do something for them," sighed the lady, adding to the chauffeur: "James, drive the car slowly, and turn on the big lamps."

Doctor—How do you feel, Colonel, when you have actually killed a man?
Colonel—Oh, not so bad. How do you?
—Punch.

"Young man," said the Magistrate severely, "the assault you have committed on your poor wife was most brutal. Do you know of any reason why I should not send you to prison?"

"If you do," you Honor," replied the prisoner at the bar, hopefully, "it will break up our honeymoon."

He was deeply in love with his wife, but awfully careless about money matters. He started away on a long business trip leaving her short of money, and promised to send her a check, which he forgot to do. The rent came due and she telegraphed: "Dead broke. Landlord insistent. Wire me money." Her husband answered: "Am short myself. Will send check in a few days.—thousand kisses." Exasperated, his wife replied: "Never mind money. I gave landlord some of the kisses. He was more than satisfied."

"I hear, Tommy, you saved a life in the war."

"Hi did, sir."

"How did you do it, Tommy?"

"By not hinlisting, sir."

"Sister," said the deacon, severely, "you should avoid even the appearance of evil."

"Why, deacon, what do you mean?" asked the "sister."

"I observed that on your sideboard you have several cut glass decanters, and that each of them is half filled with what appears to be ardent spirits."

"Well, now, deacon, it isn't anything of the kind. The bottles look so pretty on the sideboard that I filled them halfway with some floor stain and furniture polish, just for the sake of appearance."

"That's why I'm cautioning you, sister," replied the deacon. "Feeling a trifle faint, I helped myself to a dose from the big bottle in the middle."
