WEBSTER'S DICTIONARY

The Catholic Record for One Year FOR $4.00. By special arrangement with the publishers, we are able to obtain a number of the above books, and propose to furnish a copy to each of our subscribers.

Father Damien, S.J.

One of the most instructive and useful pamphlets issued in the history of Father Damien. It contains four of the most celebrated ones delivered by that renowned Jesuit Father, named "The Private Interpretation of the Bible," "The Catholic Church, the only true Church of God," "Confession," and "The Resurrection." The book will be sent to any address on receipt of 15 cents in stamps. Orders should be sent to Thos. Coffey, Catholic Record Office, London.

THOU SHALT NOT STEAL.

There seems to be a hopeless confusion in many minds regarding the meaning of the commandment, "Thou shalt not steal." If a man can obtain money by dishonesty, so that he does not bring himself in direct reach of the law and lay himself open to legal punishment, he rather pines him for the law, and struts before it as a scorpion than he, like the proverbial bird who is taken as an emblem of the purse proud upstart. The cunning manipulator of other people's money, so that he may put the most of it into his own pocket, would be indignant if he were called a thief, and yet what better name does the man deserve who wrecks railroads, and steals from widows and orphans in order to add to his millions? He may live in a brownstone mansion, elegantly furnished, instead of in a granite building with bars before the windows, but if he should be compelled to change his place of residence to the last mentioned edifice, he would meet with no more than his just deserts.

THE CHARACTER OF CONVERTS.

To elucidate truth is the object of a free discussion, and to all who are properly qualified for the task ample freedom should be given. Catholics, as regards their doctrines, court publicity; because they are fully aware that the more these are tried and examined, the stronger will be the conviction of their truth in the mind of the sincere inquirer. Of this ample proof will be found in the multitude of late conversions—conversions, be it observed, not of the vulgar and illiterate, but of the brightest ornaments of the age—not of the interested and worldly, but of men who proved themselves ready to sacrifice every worldly advantage for the sake of conscience and truth—converts, not of the victim of passions, as is the case when a stray Catholic becomes Protestant, but of men whose minds are pure and their hearts chaste, whose high and spotless morality is beyond all suspicion. Such are the men who, bursting the fetters in which they had been hitherto bound, and tearing to pieces the thick veil of early prejudice by which the Protestant world is blinded, have boldly dared to act upon the Protestant principle of examining for themselves; and, having made that examination, not without hearty commendations of themselves to Heaven, have, of late, added to the glory of the Redeemer by their piety and learning, and by their numbers extended the pale of His true Church.—The Missionary.

Popular Hotel Man.

"I was troubled with pimples on my face and head which caused me much annoyance. After trying many remedies without benefit I was advised to use Hood's Sarsaparilla. The first bottle helped me and I took four bottles. I am now completely cured."

For comfortable and inexpensive riding—

The Waverley Bicycle

... $75 ... These are better than our wheels of last year. The marked difference in price is because we do not have to buy any new machinery.

Baby Eczema and Scald Head.

Infants and young children are peculiarly subject to this terrible disorder, and it is not promptly arrested it will eventually become chronic. Dr. Chase made a special study of Eczema and diseases of the skin, and we can confidently recommend Dr. Chase's Eczema Cure. It cures Eczema, and its application soothes the irritation and puts the little sufferer to rest.

Anglican Imitations—a Bad Break.

We find this paragraph in Tuesday's Commercial: "Of all the changes wrought in England during the Victorian era, Harold Frederick thinks none more curious than the drift in the Anglican Church towards Roman forms. The new Bishop of London displayed a mitre in St. Paul's, the first seen there since the Reformation; the daily eucharist is celebrated in five hundred Anglican churches, and in nine hundred Roman Catholic churches, and in ritualistic vestments are worn in one thousand and thirty-two."
