

"Have I out-stayed my welcome?" he said. "If so, you must forgive me. I have dreamed of this meeting for years; in strange places and amid strange sights, the thought of it has been with me as the true meaning of home. Now I have come from the other side of the world, and seen you, and heard you speak, nothing remains but for me to return."

"He stopped. Something in my face, he told me afterwards, gave him courage."

"Must I go?" he said.

"You smile. You can hardly imagine your grandfather young and—"

"No, Granny," said May, clasping her closer. "I was only wondering if the bitter sorrow of your early life had been effaced by your after joy."

"Ten thousand times!" said Granny, fervently. "Ours is a love that has lived through sunshine and shadow, from youth to age, and that, please God, will last for all time."—Churchman.

Without Him You can do Nothing.

A little boy once said: "How hard it is to do right! I've tried and tried, and there's no use trying any longer." But one day, after reading his Bible, he said; "Why, I've been trying to change myself all the time, and here I read that only God can change me. I can no more change my heart than a negro can make himself white. How foolish I have been not to ask Him!"

And he was right. Are you trying to change your own heart? You can never do it. It will get worse and worse until you ask Jesus to give you a new heart.

Three Kinds.

There are many kinds of boys and girls in the world, but there are three kinds which deserve special mention. They have been called the "Wills," the "Won'ts," the "Can'ts." The "Wills" accomplish everything; the "Won'ts" oppose everything, and the "Can'ts" fail in everything. The "Wills" are the ones wanted in the army of the Lord. There is no room for the "Won'ts" or the "Can'ts" in that host.

A FRIEND IN NEED

"HERE, Johnnie, your mother doesn't understand why I am able to get out my big washings quicker and nicer than she does. Take this tablet of 'Sunlight' Soap, and tell her to use it according to directions, and she will soon find out why my washings have been done quicker and better than hers. Tell her also that this soap will keep her hands nice and soft, and doesn't shrink flannels, and is so lasting that it is the cheapest as well as the best soap she can buy."

FOR TEACHING THE CHURCH CATECHISM.

THIS BOOK is intended as a manual for the use of S. S. teachers, for confirmation classes, for advanced classes in Sunday schools and for family teaching. It will be found very interesting, as it is acknowledged on all hands. So highly did the S. S. Committee of Huron Diocese think of the matter that they recommended their introduction in every Sunday school, and that $150 worth should be placed in the Synod Depository in order to make them available for the whole Diocese. This was carried by Synod at its last meeting.
