has got into difficulties, and work has been suspended. It is stated that a proposal has been made by the proprietors to devote one-half of the stock of the concern to paying off the liabilities, the present proprietors thereby confessing to a loss of one-half of their capital stock. This proposal has not been accepted, because it would involve the expenditure of a large sum in cash by the new proprietors for working capital. Stockholders are disgusted with the losing management, and will expend no more money in trying to work it up. Creditors, on their part, will not agree to a proposal which will take still more money out of them. Jno. McDonald is still retained by the company as Secretary pro tem.
