Delightful Rose Ball Held in the Local Armories Last Evening

The Regent, officers and members of the Empire Chapter of the Daughters of the Empire scored a brilliant success last evening when they gave a rose dance and bridge at the Conservatory of Music in aid of the funds of the Brant Sanatorium. There was a very large attendance and dancing was kept up until an early hour.

The ball room was exquisitely decorated, with some five thousand pink roses; ropes of roses stretched across the hall, the stage was most artistically screened off with roses, whilst the chandeliers were shaded in pink, diffusing a most becoming glow throughout the ball room. The majority of the ladies wore powder and patches, whilst the presence of many men in military uniforms added a splash of color to the gay scene.

The floor was in perfect condition, Musgrave played as only Musgrave can play and the dance went with a merry swing from the first number to the last. The following was the programme of dances:

Extra waltz; 1. Lancers; 2. Two-step; 3. Waltz; 4. One step; 5. Waltz; 6. Two-step; 7. Waltz; 8. One-step; 9. Two-step; extras. Boston; two-step; one-step; two-step; 11. Boston; 12. One-step; 13. Waltz; 14. Two-step; 15. Waltz; 16. One-step; 17. Boston; 18. Waltz.

Many of the guests played bridge in the reception room, the following being the prize winners: Madames H. J. Yates, A. J. Wilkes, W. F. Mair, R. H. Reville, Miss C. Wye and Colonel Wilkes, Gordon Duncan and R. H. Reville. Very dainty prizes were given.

The supper arrangements were excellent; in fact, the Rose Ball was generally conceded to be one of the most successful affairs ever given in the Conservatory both from a dancing and from an artistic standpoint. The following officers and committee are to be heartily congratulated on the perfect arrangement for the evening's enjoyment: Regent, Mrs. E. C. Ashton; First Vice Regent, Mrs. Gordon Smith; second vice-regent, Mrs. J. Stratford; secretary, Miss Gertrude Scarfe; treasurer, Mrs. E. Cameron; standard bearer, Miss Dorothy Wilkes; Councilors, Mesdames A. D. Hard, H. R. Yates, E. T. Mabon, C. J. Watt, G. D. Watt, Bruce Gordon, G. G. Duncan, Misses Gilson, Van Norman and Leonard.

A handsome sum will be realized for the Sanatorium as a result of the dance.

Among the beautiful gowns worn were the following:

Mrs. E. C. Ashton (regent), gown of rich white satin, draped with shadow lace.

Mrs. Gordon Smith (vice-regent), white satin with old lace and pearls.

Mrs. A. D. Hardy, black charmeuse, with beaded jet tunic.

Splendid Bazaar Held At Wesley

The apron bazaar held by the Bound to Win class of Wesley church last evening proved a great success. The young ladies are endeavoring to assist in the payment of the church extension fund, and about $2000 were realized by their efforts. A splendid program was put on which consisted of a duet by Misses Ward and Carter; solo Mr. Goodson, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Goodson; instrumental, Miss Night; duet by Miss Leone Taylor, and Miss Hoggins, which was well taken by the audience and they were encored very heartily to which they responded. This was followed by another solo by Mr. Goodson.

Mr. I. S. Moyer acted as chairman during the evening in his usual humorous manner.

During the evening numerous articles were sold, the outstanding feature being the New England supper. Fancy aprons, caps and candy were also on the market, and were always in great demand.

The different departments were looked after by the following ladies: Tea room: Mrs. Bowden; waiters, Isma Graham, Lily Newham, Leone Chambers, Clara Brown, Gertrude Elliott, Hilda Smith, Clara Montgomery.

ery, Hazel Lavery, Muriel Ward, Thelma Luck.

Candy: Miss Grace Cutts.

Fancy work: Miss Bertha Cook.

Apron Dept.: Miss Cora Woodley and Miss Edith Godwin.

Cashiers: Miss Edna McGowan and Miss Ethel Long.

The decorating, which was very attractive, was looked after by Mr. Earl Gaukel and Mr. Frank Hartley.

Miss Taylor and her class are to be congratulated for the good work they are doing in connection with Wesley Methodist Church.

Counsel for Margaret Catherine Sullivan, 37 years old, obtained an order from the New York Supreme Court to compromise for $20,000 her claim against the estate of the late Congressman Timothy D. Sullivan.

Clever Concert Under Auspices of the Young Men of Calvary Baptist Church.

A good audience was present at the Victoria Hall to welcome Mr. H. W. Piery of Wiarnton, who entertained in a delightful manner under the auspices of the Young Men of Calvary Baptist Church.

All the emotions were stirred by the inspiring efforts of Mr. Piery. From the tragic to the humorous he passed with the magic of words ably expressed and with him, the audience.

The world famous short story, The Wheels of Time, was dealt with, and all the old characters were reviewed and were seen in a new light as the story was unfolded.

A monologue giving a vast amount of scope, was "A poor man's impression of Herr Rubenstein at the Piery," but it presented no difficulty to the entertainer.

That good old yarn, "How Bill Adams won the Battle of Waterloo," was again brought up, and the notorious old egotistical Bill was as popular as ever, being seen at his best in Mr. Piery's hands. Hamlet, the representative of Shakespeare, gave a touch of the Middle Ages, and the melancholy hero was done full justice. "The Lost Word," a story by Henry Van Dyke, of ancient Greek times, was presented. The history of the young man cast out because of his conversion to Christianity and his subsequent wanderings and eventual pardon when the word was lost, was graphically depicted. The missing word "God" being brought back in time to save the death of the outcast's child. It was a triumph for the artist.

A singer of exceptional merit, Miss Hutchison, and her rendering was full of soulful endeavor. Her song, "Rosy Moon," a difficult composition, was sung perfectly. The nightingale of nature could hardly have excelled the singing of a song of that name. The words and dells of other days were conjured up under the spell of her voice. Encores were demanded, and Miss Hutchison complied with "Life is only sweet with thee," and "Touch Me Not."

A stirring old song of the sea was contributed in a fine bass voice by the pastor of the Baptist church, the Rev. W. E. Bowyer, M.A., B.D.

The National Anthem brought to a close a splendid concert, which was greatly enjoyed.
