British Captures

Strong

Heavy Fighting Results in Important Gain For Forces of Gen. Haig; Enemy Position Taken

By Courier Leased Wire
Bulletin, London, April 13. 1:46 p.m.—German positions of a wide front have been captured by the British after seven fighting, the war office announced.

The front attacked, extended from a point north of Hargicourt to the village of Metz-en-Couture.

It is nine miles from Hargicourt to Metz-en-Couture. The sector is on the new front between Arras and St. Quentin where the Germans took up positions after their retirement.

The British captured the town and wood of Gouzeaucourt, Gauche wood and Sart Farm.

The announcement follows: "We attacked last night the region between St. Quentin and Cambrai. After sharp fighting we captured the enemy's positions on a wide front from north of Hargicourt to Metz-en-Couture. We now hold Sart Farm, Gauche wood, Gouzeaucourt village and Gouzeaucourt wood.

HOLLAND SUFFERS FROM WAR

A Victim of Sub. Campaign and the Blockade Policy
By Courier Leased Wire.
The Hague, April 12, via London April 13.—Premier Cort Van De Linden, speaking in the First Chamber to-day, said:

"The longer the war lasts the more difficult becomes the situation while the limits of international law grow continually narrower. We suffer from the submarine war and blockade policy, but we do not deviate from our policy of strict neutrality and readiness to defend our soil against anyone attacking us. The belligerents injure us by their warfare, and our neutrality injures their interests."

The Netherlands, said the Prime Minister, grants favors to neither party, but is doing what, according to the best judgment appears to be right.

"We become more lonely and by what we do we win the affection of neither party. But in any case we shall retain their respect," he continued.

He expressed the opinion that after the war the Netherlands may occupy a mediatory position, which would possibly lead to increasing prosperity. But, he added, "we should then refrain from a fiscal war."

Weather Bulletin

Toronto, April 13.—Pressure is high over Manitoba and Northern Ontario, and low along the Atlantic; local snow falls have occurred in Saskatchewan and also in Eastern Ontario and western Quebec. The weather is cold from Manitoba to the lower St. Lawrence valley.
