THE PRINCE OF WALES is Interested IN CONSUMPTION

Because every seventh person in this country dies from that disease or Tuberculosis in some form.
The Doctors have told the Prince that the only way to stop this sick-ness and loss of life is by taking the Blood with Natural Iron or (Hemoglobin) and letting the person have as much fresh air as possible.
(Paleness or Anemia), General Weakness, Nervousness, Exhaustion, Slight Colds, etc., prepare the way for Consumption.

CAPSULOIDS

They are not a patent or secret medicine, but instead are simple the Natural Dissolved Iron for Hemoglobin extracted from the Purest Blood of Healthy Young Bullfrogs, and put up in little pear-shaped covers of pure gelatine.

They are sold in boxes at 50¢ per box, six boxes for $2.50, for all leading druggists, or sent, post free on receipt of price, direct from the Canadian Branch Office at Dunham Block, Brockville, Ont., Canada.

"This represents the exact amount of Rich Red Blood added to your blood each meal three times daily."

DIED IN KANSAS

A recent issue of the Seneca (Kansas) News contains the following obituary notice of Alonzo Lyman, one time a resident of Huron Island, Ontario, who died in Seneca county, Kansas, on February 21st, aged 68 years, 8 months, 15 days.

Mr. Lyman was born in Canada, where the early part of his life was passed. He came with his wife and family to Kansas in 1862, locating in Seneca county, not far from Seneca, Mr. Lyman's wife, and a son, eight years old died in 1875, leaving him a family of six motherless children to care for, the oldest child a girl 14 years old.

Mr. Lyman found himself at this critical period in his life in the midst of exhausted resources, with a young family to care for. The absence of a "mother" from home created a vacuum which could not be filled. It was through the years Mr. Lyman labored on, keeping his family together until they were grown. Two of his sons are somewhere in the west. One daughter is married and lives in Chicago. His oldest daughter, Mrs. Knicker, at whose home the father died, his daughter Mary and his youngest son, were with him when he passed away to the great unknown. Six children, five grand children, one great grandchild, and many friends remain to keep in memory his many kindnesses and labors of love for them.

Mr. Lyman was a man of many virtues, loved and respected by those who knew him best. In our acquaintance with him, for many years, we have always known him as an honest man, and a good citizen.

Funeral services were held at the house in the presence of the family, friends and neighbors there gathered. The body was laid to rest in the Seneca cemetery by the side of his wife, whose silent form was laid to rest some twenty-four years ago.

GREENBUSH

FRIDAY, Mar. 19.—A heavy gloom settled on the community when the news spread that death had seized Mrs. Tackaberry. She had been in failing health for some time, afflicted with a complication of troubles, but on Monday evening she was prostrated by paralysis, from which she never rallied. She was the widow of the late Geo. Tackaberry, who passed away some nine years ago. Her maiden name was Murphy, being a daughter of the late George Murphy of Oak Leaf.

The deceased was a person beloved by all who knew her. She was a Christian indeed in whom there was no guile. In health she was untiring in her attendance at the bedside of the sick and suffering.

By her death the Methodist church has lost a warm supporter, the family an affectionate mother, and the community an obliging neighbor. She leaves a grown up family: Mrs. W. H. Miller of Rocksping, Mrs. H. Johnson of Smith's Falls, Miss Lena and Miss Christie at home, Mr. H. and Mr. Manford of California, and Mr. W. H. Tackaberry on the old homestead.

The religious services were held yesterday at Greenbush by the Rev. Mr. Short of Addison. The pall-bearers were Almeron Blanchard, G. F. Moore, W. G. Olds, Joseph Milne, J. M. Kewey and Richard Kerr. The large church was filled with friends and neighbors who assembled to pay their last tribute of respect to the departed.

FRONT OF YONGE

MONDAY, Mar. 20.—A black swan is rumored to be this spring.
E. Khan, the Cantonian blacksmith, works in woodwork as well as in iron. R. R. Phillips and A. Eglew have some fine looking cows from Mr. Poole of Grenadier Island. There has been a movement in cows this spring. Business in the country is in a stagnated state just at present.

FUNERAL OF J. F. WOOD

A notable gathering was that which assembled in Brockville on the afternoon of Friday last to pay the last tribute of respect to the late Hon. John Fisher Wood. Brockville riding becomingly honored the passing of its representative. The town was in mourning; every avenue of industry was closed, every sound of labor hushed, the marts of commerce were deserted, the school children (many of whom knew and loved the kindly spirit that had departed) were released from their studies, flags flew at half-mast, and everywhere men conversed in an undertone. In the gathering were many leading representatives of Canada's political parties at Ottawa and Toronto and prominent men from all parts of the Brockville and neighboring ridings. The funeral cortege, which was marshalled as follows, was most imposing: 41st Battalion Band, The Law Society, Public School Board, Canadian Order Foresters, Oddfellows, M. E. O., Undertakers' Carriage, Central Fire Station hose wagon with flowers, Hearse.

Members Provincial Legislature, Mourner in Carriages, Members Dominion Parliament, Liberal Conservative Association, Town Council and Corporation officials, Citizens in Carriages.

The societies were very fully represented and about two hundred members of the Conservative association, each wearing a white memorial badge upon which was printed a picture of the deceased, were in the procession. The first Presbyterian church, where the service was held, was filled with an immense number of people, many unable to gain admittance. After a most impressive opening service, Rev. Dr. Strachan delivered an eloquent discourse from a hymn founded on the words, "They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; and they shall wipe away all tears from their eyes," and closed with a eulogy of the deceased statesman's many virtues. The pall-bearers to the church were Sir C. H. Tupper, M.P., Hon. John Haggart, M.P., Hon. Col. G. F. P. Hon. W. B. Egan, M.P., Hon. Clark Wallace, M.P. These gentlemen having to leave for Ottawa at the conclusion of the service, the pall-bearers to the cemetery were John Culbert, Robert J. W. H. Harrison, Thomas Bennett, Dr. Moon and Warden Green. At the grave the beautiful burial services of the Mason and Odd fellows were performed.

The country has suffered a distinct loss by the death of Hon. John F. Wood. He possessed a strong mind, was a clear, forceful speaker, and brought to the warms of parliament a debate a calm spirit that went far to assuage the asperities of political warfare. His career from the time he left the grade school to the top of the world was exceptionally brilliant, and his death at the early age of 49 years is universally regretted.

PLUM HOLLOW

MONDAY, Mar. 20.—Mrs. Orilla Jackson is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. Weaver, of Elm Mills.

A young man from Delta who is engaged to work for a farmer around here was sent to a neighbor's to attend a sewing machine. The young man thinking he was going to the right place went through the woods hunting for a sawing machine and asking some people he met on the road if they had seen a sawing machine anywhere. He returned home about 9 o'clock in the afternoon and had not located the machine at that time.

A. McCallum, while hunting one day last week, shot a beautiful specimen of an owl. It was a large bird and measured 4 feet from tip to tip.

It is rumored that wedding bells are soon to ring in our village.

Mr. Wm. Snider and Mr. David Wiltsie have secured good situations in Smith's Falls for this season.

Mr. Irwin Blanchard has leased the farm of Mr. Lorren Brown at Silver Brook for a term of years.

The C. P. R. is running colonist trains through to the west every Tuesday in March and April. People going on these trains can take all their luggage with them instead of having it sent on by freight trains afterwards.

He Was Glad Anyway.

"I beg your pardon, I thought this was Mr. Chucky."

"I am Mr. Chucky."

"Then I am glad to find that when I thought I was mistaken I was mistaken in thinking I was mistaken."

"Hey!"

"I say when I thought I was mistaken I was mistaken in thinking I was mistaken, and being mistaken in thinking I was mistaken, and being mistaken in thinking I was mistaken—well, at any rate I'm glad. Looks as if we were going to have rain, doesn't it?"—Tribute.

A New Departure.

Dr. Marchand, the celebrated French physician, has at last opened his magnificently equipped laboratory in Windsor, Ont. There is a large staff of Chemists and physicians at his command, and the men and women of Canada may now procure the advice of this famous specialist free of charge.

Dr. Marchand has a world wide reputation for successfully treating all nervous diseases of men and women, and you have but to write the doctor to be convinced that your answer, when received, is from a man who is entitled to the high position he holds in the medical fraternity.

Why suffer in silence when you can secure the advice of this eminent physician free of charge.

The growing of tobacco in Western Ontario is proving very profitable and the enterprising farmers engaged in the business are taking considerable trouble to thoroughly inform themselves concerning this new industry.

At a largely attended meeting of farmers held at Kingsville, which was the centre of the tobacco growing section, a fund was subscribed to bring an expert from Kentucky and a leading English buyer to consult with them as to the best methods to be pursued in future.

Four Years on the Way.

A letter mailed in Ottawa four years ago reached its destination in Toronto Friday.

The party who received it, standing in the wall of the post office building, near where the letters are mailed and by mistake the letter was slipped in there along with two or three others. The letter in question contained $15.

The party who received it wrote stating that it arrived with the money enclosed, although dated four years ago.

Go West, Girls.

Reveloteke Heard.—If a couple of hundred good smart girls from the over-crowded eastern cities would immigrate to the Kootenays they would find no difficulty in securing employment at a respectable remuneration, in the houses of our citizens or hotels. At present the outlook in Reveloteke seems to indicate that we could do with about a dozen new ones a month, as they marry off at that rate.

A Business Chance in Athens.

The undersigned, who intends to make some changes in his business arrangements, offers to rent that large new store on Elgin street, Athens, now occupied by him as a grocery and store of general merchandise. This building is large, convenient, and finished in the very best style. To a business man, a bargain is here offered to secure one of the best business stands in the county of Leeds. The subscriber also offers to sell his entire new, large stock of groceries and general merchandise, and to let the child as high as possible, and the relief comes much more readily.

Mr. A. James of Brockville is in Athens this week.

Mr. Merrick Mott of Brockville is visiting friends in Athens this week.
