VARICOCELE CURED TO STAY CURED.

Varicocele impairs vitality and destroys the elements of manhood. Surgical means should not be employed to treat this complaint, as operations always weaken the parts. We daily prove by successful results that Varicocele can be cured without operation. Instead of maiming and mutilating the organs, our VITALIZED TREATMENT strengthens the parts, removes all pain or itching, restores the circulation, reduces the swelling, vitalizes the nerves and establishes the vigor of manhood. Our treatment is the result of 30 years' experience. You feel its magic influence during the first week.

PAY WHEN CURED.
We cure Blood and Skin Diseases, Strictures, Varicocele, Nervous Debility, Prostatic Troubles, Chronic Kidney, Urinary and Bladder Diseases. Consultation Free. Books Free.

BLOOD POISON

For over thirty years we have treated and cured all forms of Blood diseases, both hereditary and acquired. Our New Method Treatment is original with ourselves, and never fails to eradicate the poison from the system. Beware of mercury and other mineral poisons, which so many doctors prescribe for this terrible disease, as they will ruin the system. Other treatments drive the poison into the system, whereas our treatment destroys the virus or poison in the blood and removes it from the system entirely, so the symptoms can never return. If you have any of the following symptoms consult us before it is too late: Blisters, eruptions or pimples; falling out of the hair; itching of the skin; stiffness or pains in the joints; soreness in the muscles; sore throat; ulcers or bad taste in the mouth; sore tongue; soreness of the stomach; enlarged glands; running sores, etc.

Our New Method Treatment will purify the blood, heal up the sores, remove all pain; the hair will grow in again, all organs will be restored to their normal condition, and the patient prepared to renew the duties and pleasures of life. We guarantee marriage possible with absolute safety.

CURES GUARANTEED OR NO PAY

We treat and cure Varicocele, Nervous Debility, Stricture, Gleet, Blood Poison, Urinary Troubles, Kidney and Bladder Diseases.

READER! Are you a victim? Have you lost hope? Are you contemplating marriage? Has your blood been diseased? Have you any weakness? Our New Method Treatment will cure you. Consultation Free. No matter who has treated you, write for an honest opinion Free of Charge. Charges reasonable. Books Free.—"The Golden Monitor" (Illustrated) on Diseases of men. CYRUS AND I

Dear me, what a changeable set of mortals men are! When Cyrus Sykes was courting me, he was the dearest, kindest mortal in the world. Say, he was just perfection itself, and he was thus for a whole year or so after he married me; for marry me he did, although he has often told me that it was my mother and I which married him, but I say he married me, and when he did he promised to cherish, love, stay in nights, go to church, etc. Land's sake, I could of got him to promise anything. I believe he did love me then, but just how many more silly young things he loved in a similar manner I've never been able to find out exactly, although I have tried and tried. But, however, he loved me along with rest, and I think perhaps a little more than some of them, for he used to hang around our place most every night and stay and stay and stay, until mother would become nervous and fidgety and make some remarks about it being time that all respectable folks were in bed, and so on. Then he would seem to want to stay, and I remember many and many a time of his nice little love stories being put short by a mysterious rapping from the vicinity of mother's bedroom.

Then he would go to church every Sunday and carry my books and parcel, button my glove, tie up my shoe, hook my dress behind, and everything. Why, he'd help me into the buggy and help me out, and wouldn't let a bit of mud get on me for the world. But now he will just drive up and say "Fie in" and when we come back he will say "Dump out." And when we was first married he would come in and set down and praise me up and talk for an hour, ask me if there was anything he could do for me, and help me, and if I was tired, and all this. But now if I even chance to hint that I am tired, he will say "Oh, you're always grunting—what you require is a breathing machine."

And again, when we was married, he said it was cot fair when the law required me to change my name to Sykes for him to assume part of my maiden name (my maiden name was Ruthana Cobb). He said he always liked the name of Cobb, so he would just change his name to Cyrus Cobb-Sykes; besides, he said it was all the style to have a hyphenated name, and would give the wedding a society tone, like the Wilson-Smiths and the Bradley-Martins and others.

Yes, I think Cyrus loved me once, and I don't want to get to doubting and thinking that he has lost all of it for me now, but he says some awful sarcastic things to me about women, and acts just horrid sometimes. He is always sick or tired when I want him to go to church; the sermons are always too long or too dry, or the weather is too cold or too hot, and if he should chance to go he is sure to go to sleep during the service and snore so I have to nudge him to wake him up; then he will yawn and gap, get out his watch and snap the case of it and act just horrid. The last time he went to sleep in church I prodded him with my hat pin, and do you know he swore right out loud, and the person could not help but hear it. Why, I was so ashamed and mortified I did not know where to look. I haven't asked him to go since, and he hasn't, and I can see he is growing worse and worse; for the other night when I was praising up my preacher and a setting forth his good qualities and truthful ways, Cyrus said he "Wouldn't trust a preacher any more than he would any other common man, our own included." Said I, Cyrus Cobb Sykes, how dare you speak that way about the preacher; as for me I think he is just perfect. "Well, said he, "You never traded horses with him or you'd change your mind mighty quick." You didn't neither, said I; you haven't got a horse to trade. Then he said "no, I never traded with him myself, but I know a man who did, and I guess he knows it too."

Well, said I, Cyrus Cobb Sykes, that is none of your business; preachin' is preachin' and boss tradin' is boss tradin', and I can't blame a preacher for making a good horse trade if he gets a chance, that is nothing agin his preachin, is it? Then he says real snappish like, "Of course, you would stick up for him any way; it's a pity you didn't get one of them preachers for a man, you would have been blessed, and so would he, and the blessings which I would have enjoyed could niver of half been told." Do you suppose Cyrus Cobb-Sykes would have talked that way to me the day we were married? Not much, he would have sided in with and sanctioned every word I said about any one, good or bad. Why, it's just dreadful the way he talks sometimes.

The other night when Harold came home from school, he began to tell me something he had learned from the teacher. He was a getting it all mixed up and I went to help him on with his story, for it was something I knew well, when Cyrus said in a slurring way, "My boy, when you undertake to tell your dear mother anything, you have undertaken one of the biggest jobs of a lifetime. It can't be done, it is one of the world's impossibilities; I have been trying to talk to her for twenty-one years and have failed totally." Do you think that is any way to cherish and to love and to honor?

And again, and furthermore, he said "that the dearest earthly things to the average woman was a departmental store, a bargain counter, and a stock of remnants." Such an idea, I say it 'taint no such thing. And I notice when I buy anything at a bargain counter, and get it cheap, for him or the children he will give me all sorts of praise for making such a good bargain, which goes to show that a man's heart is very low down and close to his pocket. I wonder if men are all alike. I suppose they are, and I can go so far as to say the most of them are not worth their face value. And that ain't saying very much.

Ruthana Cobb-Sykes.

THE GLOBE'S WAR NEWS

The Russo-Japan conflict has commenced in earnest, and that part of the world is now the centre of interest. In order that our readers may be kept in the closest touch with the situation we have made special arrangements whereby they can have The Weekly Globe for the year 1904 on specially liberal terms.

The Globe, with its usual enterprise, has made arrangements with The London Times whereby it is able to publish simultaneously the reports sent direct from the scene of action, The Times, London, England, has established its reputation as being the greatest and most reliable news-gatherer in the world, and our readers can have full benefit of its excellent staff of correspondents by reading The Daily or The Weekly Globe.

The Globe has the exclusive control of this service in Canada, and these reports will not appear in their original form in any other Canadian publication.

A summarized report of every item of interest will be especially written for the The Weekly Globe, enabling readers to gain a thorough knowledge of the situation without the trouble of reading columns of contradictory and confusing reports.

The Weekly Globe, with its illustrated section and many interesting features, is now one of the cleanest and brightest newspapers in America, and we are pleased to be able to announce that the arrangement just completed will enable subscribers to secure it for this year at a special price.
