What People You Know Say About Gin Pills

THE GREAT KIDNEY CURE

TORONTO, June 6th, 1905. I take great satisfaction in writing to you and telling you of the splendid condition of health that I am now in, which was brought about entirely by taking your Gin Pills. For years my kidneys have been my weak spot and kept me unhealthy, and although I knew the cause, I could not get relief. Six weeks ago I heard that Gin Pills were being widely sold in Ontario, and I concluded to try them, though I did not believe that they could entirely cure me, but they have, and I am now sure that my kidney trouble has disappeared. I will always have some of the pills on hand, and will recommend them to my friends who are troubled with ailments due to the defective work of their kidneys. Yours respectfully, F. E. BASKERVILLE.

Miss Anna Lyle Mayhew is spending a few days in Chatham, the guest of Miss Aletha Davidson. Miss L. Evelyn McCulloch attended a dinner party in Chatham on Saturday, at the home of the Misses McNaughton. One rink of bowlers who went to London, came home "soon," but we are proud to say the other rink stayed and did honor to Thamesville. Dr. Munro preached his farewell sermon in Ridgeway last night to a large congregation. He leaves shortly for Bethel.

DO YOU KNOW

That Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the only medicine sold through druggists for women's weaknesses and peculiar ailments that does not contain large quantities of alcohol? It is also the only medicine, especially prepared for the cure of the delicate diseases peculiar to women, the maker of which is not afraid to take his patients into his full confidence, by printing upon each bottle wrapper all the ingredients entering into the medicine. Ask your druggist if this is not true. "Favorite Prescription," too, is the only medicine for women, all the ingredients of which have the unequalled endorsement of the leading medical writers of the several schools of practice, recommending it for the cure of the diseases for which the "Prescription" is advised. Write to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for a free booklet, and read the numerous extracts from standard medical authorities praising the several ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's medicines are made, and don't forget that no other medicines put up in such a beautiful and convenient form as Dr. Pierce's. Dr. Pierce's medicines show any such professional endorsement. This, of itself, is of far more weight and importance than any amount of so-called "testimonials" so conspicuously flaunted before the public, in favor of the alcoholic compounds. The "Favorite Prescription" cures all woman's peculiar weaknesses and derangements, thus banishing the periodical headaches, backaches, bearing-down distress, tenderness and dragging-down sensations in lower abdomen, accompanied by weakening and disagreeable catarrhal, pelvic drains and kindred symptoms. Dr. Pierce and his staff of skilled specialists may be consulted free by addressing as above. All correspondence is treated as strictly confidential. By consulting in this way the disagreeable questioning and personal "examinations" are avoided. The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser contains some very interesting and valuable chapters on the diseases peculiar to women. It contains over one thousand pages. It is sent post paid, on receipt of sufficient in one-cent stamps to pay cost of customs and mailing only, or 31 cents for a copy in flexible paper covers, or 50 cents for a cloth-bound copy. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce as above. Dr. Pierce's Pills regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. One a laxative, two or three cathartic.

DOVER SOUTH.

Yesterday morning was one of the prettiest and simplest weddings which ever was perhaps witnessed at Dover South R. C. church. The bride was Miss Louise Belanger, daughter of Mr. Eli Belanger, who has been esteemed and honored as one of the most popular young ladies in Dover. The groom, Mr. Wm. David, is also a well known gentleman of this place. Mr. Joseph Louzon and Miss C. David were best man and bridesmaid. Mr. and Mrs. David left this morning for the east, where they will spend their honeymoon, afterwards making their home in Dover. Although no invitations were issued for the nuptial mass the church was crowded with friends.

Humor and Philosophy

By DUNCAN M. SMITH

WORKING HER CHARMS.

If she has a dainty dimple and a set of pearly teeth, It's a very easy thing to make her laugh. You may quickly start a ripple for a pretty dimple wreath. If you really are not trying more than half. Oh, it's very easy money! Your remarks will be dead funny. And will strike her fairly on the crazy bone. She will think you very witty. If it makes her look real pretty. At your jokes you will not have to laugh alone.

When a girl is cute and cunning, though she may not be a flirt, She is pretty apt to overwork her smile. Though her little shoes are pinching and her busy corns may hurt, Yet the dimple keeps on dimpling all the while. In an ecstasy of rapture, With a man on hand to capture, You would think the girl was free from every care. For the lady can dissemble, But it really makes me tremble When I think how much she wishes she might swear.

Knew His Position.

"As near as I am able to observe," exclaimed the proud old turkey gobler, "the human race was created by an all wise providence for our special benefit. It goes to great trouble and pains to plant crops in the spring that it may have grain to feed us, and something impels it to build nice little houses to keep us warm. Surely we are favored above most members of the feathered tribe." "It would be a shame to break the news to him," was all old Dobin, dean of the barnyard, had to say as he turned slowly away.

Served Its Purpose.

The harp that once thronged Tara's halls The soul of music shed. Now useless hangs upon the walls— The neighbors all are dead.

Spoiled His Trade.

"He started out to be a bad man, but highwaymen met him on a lonely road and discouraged him."

"Take away his gun?"

"No; they cut off his mustache."

Not by Choice.

"Is the county jail a popular place?" "Well, not exactly."

"I hear there were a couple of men hanging around there last week."

Hardly.

Breathes there a man with soul so dead Who never to his wife hath said: My dear, you're spending too much cash. We'll have to live on cheaper hash. You must think money grows on trees And floats down to me on the breeze. What did you do with all that dough I handed you a week ago? Three dollars? Huh! Well, don't get sore! You'd spent it if it had been four."

Acceptable Subject.

"What do you do when you are with a girl and can't think of anything to say?" "I talk about her."

PERT PARAGRAPHS.

When an actress tries to look like an actress it is pretty good evidence that she isn't an actress.

A woman reserves the right to change her mind and her complexion.

Among the first impressions that count are those made more in sorrow than in anger by the parental slipper.

We wouldn't mind having people talk about us if they were not so liable to let the truth slip out.

All a woman asks is to be permitted to go her own way and take her husband with her.

A man gets his first taste of real married life when the ceremony is over and the justice says, "Two dollars, please."

For one person that fashion makes appear stunning it makes a dozen look like monkeys.

You hear talking behind a person's back condemned as though it were possible to talk in front of his back.

It isn't necessary for a woman to be able to think of something to say in order to keep on talking.

When a man is shy his ante it is up to him to have a heart to heart talk with his uncle.

The faithful worker rarely has time, inclination or need to preach.
