The tour besina at Leeda. The civic authorities at Manchester, Leeds, Réliaburgh and Glasgow have through the overseas Club invited six hundred Canadian soldiers to visit these cities and receive a public fare-well. The tour begins at Leeds on May 20. Other towns are also for mulating plaus to entertain Canadian troops.

Parents should be cautious about giving their children permission to stay out of school. Research and the cautious about giving their children permission to stay out of school.

Prince Edward Island proposes to take a step backwasd. For a long time after the othes, provinces had used the ballot, P. E. Island was satisfied with open voting. Finally the ballot was adopted, and a man could vote without the public learning to which side he leaned. Now the coaservative coveragent proposes. the coaservative government proposes to return to open voting for provin cial elections. No good reasons can be given for so retrograde a step.

The class of man who got into power is German cities following the destruction of the old Torms of government may be learned from a Musich despatch which says the Communists before they left their strongholds when attacked by troops under orders from Berlin, destroyed all the criminal records at police headquarters, including the rogues gailery, and the archives of the imperial gypsy bureau, containing the only records in the empire of these dangerous persons.

Objection may be well taken to the motion picture service furnished the bupile of this province and for that matter of all of Canada. I as discussion on this subject in the British
