Paris, Jan. 10.—The Swiss army is staunchly determined to defend its country at all costs from invasion from any source. Such was the unqualified declaration made today by Gen. Wille, commander-in-chief of the Swiss army, in an interview given to a correspondent of LeMatin.

General Wille's declaration was prompted by reports that Germany intends to violate Swiss neutrality by preparing to invade that country with two armies, one to attack Italy by way of Grisons and Tessin, the other to assault France.

"I want to assure the French people," said Gen. Wille, "that there is no basis in fact for the doubts that have been expressed in some places concerning the sentiment of the Swiss general staff. The new Swiss army is at its post, arms in hand, ready for any sacrifices necessary to maintain the honor of the country."

RED CROSS VAUDEVILLE ON THURSDAY NEXT

The Canadian Red Cross Society, until recently known as the Red Cross Club, has arranged to give another of its popular vaudeville entertainments in the Opera House, on Thursday, January 18th. Please bear in mind that the entire proceeds will be used to provide comforts for "our boys" who are being lured to sleep by the roar of cannon and the bursting of shells "somewhere in France." Whilst we are enjoying home comforts, we all helped to cheer them away, and we no doubt very sincerely in our enthusiasm, but we must be consistent and do "our bit" every time a chance presents itself.
