While working in the Maritime Paper and Pulp mill, Thursday night, Mr. Alfred Cady slipped into one of the pits and badly scalded one of his legs. Ray O'Kane had his arm broken in the Pulp Mill Friday. While oiling some machinery his clothing caught.—World.

Some of the good qualities of McMurdo's clothing. The breast DON'T fall away, the button's DON'T come off, the stitching DON'T rip, the seams DON'T ravel, they DON'T wear for ever, but look good while they do wear. What more can you ask.

Patrick Lloyd, aged ninety-eight years, went from his home in Bartibogue to Chatham Monday to attend the St. Patrick's day service in the pro-cathedral, after which he walked fully three-quarters of a mile and back to see some old friends living in the lower end of the town. Mr. Lloyd reads without glasses, and says he was never ill a day in his life.

The annual meeting of the Southwest River Log Driving Company was held last week at Fredericton, when the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President—H. H. Gunter, Vice-President—J. H. Richards, Secretary—Treasurer—Harry Beckwith, Directors—M. West, T. Lynch, J. F. Randle, H. H. Gunter, and J. H. Richards.

What is considered the largest load of logs ever hauled in Restigouche County was hauled recently from the yards to the landing on Narrows Branch of Grou Brook. This is one of Shives Lumber Co's operation and in charge of Foreman Nat Underhill. The load consisted of sixty-five pieces containing 5385 superficial feet of lumber and was drawn by a pair of horses a distance of a mile. The sleds used were double rocker eight feet wide with corner bind.—Events.

Mr. and Mrs. James Robinson entertained at dinner Friday evening at their beautiful residence in Derby in honor of Mr. and Mrs. John McKane, of New York. Covers were laid for twelve. Pink roses and smilax formed the table decorations; white roses, carnations and ferns were used in decorating the drawing room and library. Much to the delight of all present, Miss Robinson, who has a beautiful soprano voice, sang several times during the evening. Mr. McKane's Scotch songs were also greatly enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. McKane will sail for England this week.

The prospectus of the Chatham, Albert and Sydney S. S. Company was submitted by Mr. John Agnew of Alberton, at a meeting of the Summerside Board of Trade Friday night. As previously intimated, was proposed to have alternate tri along the north and south sides of the island, with Summerside as a port of call. Many regarded the service as beneficial. Summerside is and likely to prove a financial success. On motion of J. A. Brae, seconded by R. T. Holman, it was unanimously resolved that the local Board of Trade bear in command the enterprise shown the organization of the company. It was further decided that the proposal to maintain direct communication from Chatham to Sydney the southern end of the island with Summerside as a port of call will be of material benefit to our shippers, merchants and other business interests and should receive from them their most generous encouragement and support.—Summerside Farmer.

The regular County Court will sit here Tuesday.

All members of Newcastle Division are requested to be present Thursday evening.

If you want values for your money, and the best clothing sold in Newcastle call at McMurdo's.

A car on Con. S. G. Nickerson's west bound special got off the track near Red Pine Friday afternoon. The accident was caused by a broken wheel. The auxiliary car was sent out from Newcastle and the track was clear about 19 o'clock. No. 35 express was delayed about four hours. Little or no damage was done to the cars or the track. The special was hauled by engine No. 273, Driver Bourgeois.

Vernon Turner, a prominent farmer of Bayville, Charlotte Co., was brought to the hospital with a fractured skull. He was operating a wood-sawing machine when the belt slipped off. Instead of stopping the engine he tried to replace the belt with a peavy. The peavy caught in the driving wheel and its handle crashed down upon his forehead. He is still alive with chances against his recovery.

Mr. R. W. McLellan, barrister, returned last night from a business trip to New York and Albany. He met the minister of railways while in New York and he seemed to be greatly pleased with the hospitality extended to him by the members of the Canadian Club, before whom he delivered an address on Canada. The minister was very pleasantly entertained during his sojourn in New York.—Fredericton Herald.

On the 17th inst., the I. C. R., station at Nelson was broken into and an entrance County was hauled recently from the gained to the freight shed thereby and at quantity of liquor stolen. I. C. R. Officer D. Noble, was put on the case with the result that Sat. he had a warrant sworn out for the arrest of one Thos. O'Tool, and in company with Sheriff Irving drove to Nelson bringing back this man. He was arraigned before police Magistrate A. A. Davidson and remanded until Wednesday 28th. O'Tool it seems is an old offender.

The Acme of perfection, McMurdo's clothing, they fit well, wear well, and give general satisfaction. Try them.
