As a racing man would say, that was a fine race the St. Patricks and W. E. P. C. nines gave the fans on Saturday afternoon.

That long game on Saturday ought to make the refreshment privileges at the ball yard more valuable.

If High Private's race on Saturday is in any way suggestive of the class of New York three-year-olds, then Donald Macdonald will win the Belmont stakes this week.

The accommodation for the press at the ball games at the Britannia Park is very poor. On Saturday three reporters had to sit on two pop boxes.

Both King James and High Private returned to New York yesterday. They are engaged in the Brooklyn Handicap, a mile and a quarter, to be run on Thursday.

Regarding that belief that Johnson would be easy to beat if an opponent fought him around the body, the champion takes exception.

The touring car has ceased to be the badge of social distinction. Ike Bloom, Andy Craig, Jack Johnson, Battling Nelson, Stanley Ketchel, John J. Ryan, Simon Tuckerton and all those fellows have gone in for it.

Just in so many words the King acknowledges the receipt, by the royal sec., of John E. Madden's cablegram of congratulation. He might have added: "We are sorry that our royal jockey had to hang your coat on the fence in order to insure the triumph of our royal colors."

SHERRING BEATEN BY ALFIE SHRUBB.

Tom Longboat Quit in the Chicago Marathon.

Buffalo, May 31.—Alfred Sherring, the English distance runner, easily defeated William Sherring, of Hamilton, Ont., winner of the Athens Marathon, in a fifteen mile race at Baseball Park on Saturday.

Sherring finished the first and second miles a yard or two in front of the Englishman, but after that never looked dangerous. There was a game struggle for supremacy in the third mile, when Sherring went out to get a lead.

The day was perfect for an outdoor race. There was a big crowd. The race started at 3.09 o'clock, when Jas. J. Jeffries fired the pistol. The track was eight laps to the mile.

Alfie Sherring kept the first mile in 2.04 2/5. Longboat kept second place until the eighth mile. In the sixth mile St. Yves' time was 33.42 3/5, eight seconds faster than his New York record.
