VANCOUVER RIOTS PLANNED IN SEATTLE

U. S. Agitators Took Part in Trouble---Intended to Impress K. Ishii.

Tokio Takes Matter Quietly---Hamilton Fyfe on the Coming Struggle.

Portland, Ore., Sept. 10.—The Oregonian to-day prints this despatch from Seattle, Wash.: Every indication is that the Vanoouver, B. C., riots were carefully planned to impress K. Ishii, chief of the Bureau of Foreign Commerce. It is significant that the leaders of the Seattle organization against Japanese immigration were in Vancouver heading the deliberation to Ishii here, as he refused to remain long enough for the Vancouver demonstration on Sept. 12. There is no question whether Seattle, Portland on Sept. 12. There is no question whether Seattle, Portland on Sept. 12. There is no question whether Seattle, Portland on Sept. 12. Frank W. Cottrill, president of the Washington State Federation of Labor; E. A. Fowler, secretary of the Labor; E. A. Fowler, secretary of the Anti-Japanese and Corean Immigration League; George P. Listman, a prominent Seattle iabor leader, all were present, together with a big delegation of American anti-Japanese sympathizers. The significance of the Japanese riots dates back to a programme evolved when it was announced that Ishii was coming to Seattle. It was then decided and telegraphed out of Seattle that the anti-oriental organizations proposed to present to Ishii, while he was in Seattle, a protest against Japanese immigration. At the time this plan was formulated it was believed Ishii would spend a week in Seattle and then go to Vancouver. There was planned at a conference between Vancouver and Seattle anti-Japanese leaders all the details for a big anti-Japanese demonstration in Vancouver on Sept. 12. It developed that Ishii did not have time to spend in Seattle, and he went through to Vancouver. Simultaneously with his going local leaders of the anti-Japanese eleaders that they harangued the mob not to do violence. The society itself believes the demonstration had to do with their presence. Has Little to Say.

Has Little to Say.

Tckio, Sept. 10.—The most meagre account of the anti-Japanese trouble in Vancouver, B.C., is published in a special cablegram to the Asahi this morning. While awaiting details, the Asahi refrains from editorial comment. The published despatch, which is from Ishii, of the Japanese Bureau of Commerce, is brief, and expresses the opinion that the trouble is over. The Japanese press and officials generally show no disturbance over the immigration question, and it is conceded in official circles here that the ematter will be ultimately set-

CONSIDERED HENRY CASE.

TRADES AND LABOR COUNCIL COM-MITTEE HEARD REPORT.

Will Recommend That the Whole Affair be Thoroughly Investigated by the City Council.

A meting of the special committee ap pointed by the Trades and Labor Counci to investigate the charges made by the Building Trades Council against Henry, a city employee, met last night. The committee received a report and concluded that the City Council should thoroughly investigate the case. It was decided to continue the inquiry, independent of the Trades Council. It was stated that one of the men employed by Henry and paid by the city drew only 25 cents an hour one week, but the next week he and pair by the city tree was a carte an hour one week, but the next week he was advanced to 37½ cents an hour. It was represented to the committee that Mr. Henry made $7 or $8 a day on the job, including his own wages. It was also stated to the committee last night that while Mr. Henry was in the employ of the city he was at work on a house on the mountain—that he put in two or three hours only on the city job, and the rest of his time on his private contract. It was further stated that while Mr. Henry drew union pay and profit on the work of the men on the city job, some of the men were not drawing the union scale.

OUEBEC BRIDGE.

Will Take Two Years to Repair Damage by Accident.

Philadelphia, Sept. 10.—David Reeves, President of the Phoenix Bridge Co., said to-day that although inquiry into the concern's loss as a result of the fall of the Quebec cantilever bridge had not been completed, he did not believe that the loss would be one-fourth as large as was at first supposed. Other officials declared that the work of rebuilding the bridge would be continued if the Canad-ian government did not object. "Several weeks must elapse before any conclusion as to the cause of the ac-cident can be reached," said one of them. ATTACK ON DECK HANDS.

ANOTHER MURDEROUS AFFAIR IN NORTH END LAST NIGHT.

Three Men Employed on Boats Beaten So That They Had to be Taken to the City Hospital.

Shortly before last midnight a dastardly attack was made upon three north-end men as they were going home by a crowd of 12 or 14 well dressed young men at James and Strachan streets, and the police think they are streets, and the police think they are the men who, on Sunday afternoon, used Constable May up badly. Patrick Morgan, William Brown and Ernest Gartforth were the three victims and they are employed as deckhands on some of the boats between here and Toronto. While they were uptown they met some young men at James and Robert streets, who accosted them and called them who accosted them and called them "chirpers." Words were exchanged, but this was the extent of the trouble, and the three "chirpers" had started for home forgetful of their previous trouble. At Strachan street the same gang with the assistance of some of their friends surrounded the three deckhands and attacked them. A call for the patrol was sent in by some onlooker, but the gang had faded away when the wagon got there. The three men were much cut and bruised in the fracas, and were taken to the City Hospital, where their injuries were dressed and they, proceeded home.
