LEGISLATIVE DEBATES.

COMMITTEE ON WATER PRIVILEGES.

The House in Committee on the subject of granting water privileges. Petitions and correspondence on the subject having been read.

Hon. Mr. HAZARD explained that it rested with the House to take such action as they thought fit in the matter, which was of great importance, as affecting the rights of owners of lands fronting on navigable rivers, to erect wharfs or breakwaters in front of their properties.

Hon. Mr. LANG—The land was in the public, and no amount of encroachments by an individual in the present state of the law would deprive the public of its rights.
