

GODERICH, C. W., MAY 25, 1865.

WHAT WILL THEY DO WITH HIM?

This question is gravely put by all who have leaped of the capture of Jefferson Davis...

Q. Was anything said as to what Captain Hall—the one afterwards executed—was to play in these movements at the North? Ans. Cockerell told me he was detached service, and we would hear of him.

Q. Cockerell was a member of that party, I understand you say? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you while there see Booth and Cockerell associated together? A. I did not see them particularly; I saw them in a crowd together.

Q. About what time—during the last year or two—since the reverse of the Confederacy had commenced—it has not been freely and frequently spoken of in the rebel service, as an object finally to be accomplished, the assassination of the President of the United States? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you not heard it spoken of freely in the streets of Richmond, among those connected with the rebel government? A. Yes, sir.

Q. About what time—when is the latest you can now recall having heard declarations of that sort at Richmond? A. At the time after the battle of Chancellorsville, when I do not know what general it was, but believe it was General A. P. Hill, who was at Richmond at that time I heard it; I was in Richmond on a furlough at the same time.

Q. Whenever and wherever spoken of, do you understand you say that this sentiment of the necessity of the assassination of the President of the United States was generally assented to in the service? A. Yes, sir.

Q. It meant that of warfare? A. Yes, sir.

one or two hundred others are guilty of all the crimes charged against them, but we do deny, as every honest man must, that there has been but for a single title of evidence to prove that Mr. Davis was cognizant of or had even the remotest share in the recent horrible tragedy.

THE PHOTOGRAPHIC GEL.—Many of us have often remarked how differently our friends look in pictures to what they do in real life.

THE RUSSIAN PESTILENCE.—An interesting letter on the Russian Epidemic appearing in the Vienna Medical Review is dated St. Petersburg, April 9, and says: "The conduct of the government in this emergency is really unpardonable."

A MISSIONARY IN SEARCH OF HIS SISTER.—The Detroit Tribune says:—Mr. Joseph Delander, a missionary in the employ of the London C. W. Presbytery, writes us that he has just returned from a mission to his sister, who has been taken to a convent in the city of Rome.

STREET RAILWAY INCIDENT.—A dispatch from Philadelphia, dated the morning of the 17th, is to the following effect:—Last evening a colored man got into a Third Street passenger car, and refused to leave the car, where his presence appeared to be not desired.

THE LONDON SEWAGE.—The greatest and almost beneficial system of sewerage in the world is that which has been partially completed in London, at a cost of twenty millions of dollars.

STRIKES AT HOME.—A friend of mine, who was in Australia some years ago, informs me that he destroyed all the large spiders he found in his house, until he discovered the nest of one of them surrounded by the remains of other spiders.

NOTWITHSTANDING their progress in mining operations, there is no quartz-mine in either British Columbia or Vancouver Island.
