TARIO.

Nuts to Crack forthe Electors.

Who shall govern Ontario ?-the electors of the province, or the Premier of the Dominion?

What, (very pertinently, asks the Hamilton Times,) is the use of a Provincial Legislature which is to be responsible, well to put people on their guard not to the electors of the Province, but donald has more supporters from the other Provinces than from Outaio, and supporters. In a case where the claims win. or prejudices of the rest of the Dominion of Ontario conflict with the claims it be the principal of naney. he would enforce the will of the Tories then, is the responsibility of members of minds. the Untario Legislature to their constituents? The Slanders on Mr. Pokerty.

The slanders of the Mail on Mr. Doherty in charging that hotel keepers were compelled to buy their licenses have received the most complete refutation. And yet the organ does not apologize. Nay, it even refuses to publish the letters of parties whose names have been wrongfully used in support of the organ's baseless charges. One of the names mentioned was that of Edward Hanlan who gave the contradiction in the follow ing letter, which speaks for itself :

"In your issue of the 18th inst., under "the heading of 'Mr. Doherty's mon-"opoly of the cigar trade among hotel "keepera,' you say, 'It is openly stated "that Edward Hanlan and Mr. Mead, "hotel keepers on the Island, were forc-"ed to purchase 10,000 eigurs each, from "Mr. Doherty before their licenses were "granted," As far as I am concerned "the statement is wholly untrue, and I "consider it a slander upon Mr. Doherty "and myself." He states that he was in England in April last when his license was granted. After his return in July he bought $150 worth of eigars from Ner'ich & Co., as he would from any other firm. He continues : "In future "when you attack a political opponent "please leave my name out unless the "statements you rely on me to prove are "true. I am a good Conservative, and "I will not conquer an opponent by foul "means. I have not done it in my pro-"fessional capacity, and will not do it "any way, nor for anything."

The Law on Strayed Cattle.

In answer to a correspondent requesting information concerning stray cattle. the Collingwood Enterprise gives the following summary of the law, which we copy for the benefit of our country read-

Properly speaking all stray animals should be taken to the nearest poundkeeper, but stray horses, bulls, oxen, cows, sheep, goats, pigs or other cattle. may be retained by any person, providing no claim for damages made, and due notice of their detention is given. The owner, if known, must be notified in writing. If unknown, the Clerks of the municipality must be supplied with a written notice, containing a description of the animal. The Clerk is required to enter the notice into a book to be kept by him for the purpose and to post a notice in a conspicuous place, or near the door of his office, for one week. If the animal is worth more than $10, the distrainer must also publish a notice in a ountry newspaper unce a week for three weeks. The distrainer must feed the animal, and recover value for the same, as well as for time, trouble and attendance. If the "stray" is not claimed within the time mentioned in the notice, an affidavit to that effect must be made before the Justice of the peace, and notice of sale given. The sale can be conducted by any poundkeeper but not by private individuals, and the animal must be sold by auction. Notice of sale for pigs, goats or sheep, may be given one month after the animal is taken up; for horsesand other cattle the notice may not be issued until after two months. All charges are deducted from the amount realized by the sale and the surplus, if any, must be paid over to the Treasurer of the municipality. If the charges of the municipality. If the charges of Rhym the distrainer are disputed, any three fence viewers are empowered to act as arbitrators.

BLANC, of Paris, has been using Phosphates iargely in treating occumption, and says he considers them the most reliable agents yet discovered, and reports that of all the cases treated none have become worse and the majority materially benefitted, and manifesting signs of nermanent recovery. This is the record of Wheeler's Phosphates and Calliaya which cures a larger proportion of cases than any preparation hitherto known.

Walter Linton, of Waterloo, writes that Hagyard's Yellow Oil has done great good in his family, his wife being cured of callous lumps that other medicines failed to remove, he also states that a neighbor was promptly relieved of Rheumatism by the same remedy 2

The habitual loiterer never brings anythe habitual loiterer never brings anything to pass. The young men whom you see lounging about, waiting, for the weather to change before they go to work, break down before they begin, get stuck before they start. Ability and willingness to labor are the two great conditions of success. It is useless to work an electric machine in a vacuum, but the air may be full of electricity, and still you can draw no spark until you turn the machine. The beautiful statue may exist in the artist's brain, and it may also be said in a certain sense to exist in a marble block that stands before him, but he must bring both his brains him, but he must bring both his brains and his hands to bear unto the marble, and work hard and long, in order to pro-duce any practical result. Success also depends in a good measure upon the man's promptness and skill to seize op-portunities, and take advantage of the rise of the tide. A great deal of what we call luck is nothing more or less than this. It is the man who keeps his eyes open, and his hands out of his pockets, that succeeds. "I missed my chance," exclaims the disappointed man, when he sees another catch the ball and "go in."

If he had been as alert as the other he might not have missed. But something more than alertness is needed; we must know how to avail ourselves of the emfor you.

10. Shun work; it is vulgar Hang round the big hotels and workingmen will envy you.

11. Make acquaintances of people beneath you—if you can find any—for it is pleasant to be looked up to.

12 Avoid men who know more than you do. It is unpleasant to be patronized by such fellows.

13 Never mind about the rules of politeness. Leave such stuff to old men and school girls.

14. Never throw the mantle of charity over any but your own sins.

15. Never miss a chance to aneer at

15. Never miss a chance to sneer at religion, or to denounce professors as hypocrites. Thus you will show that frankness of opinion which should be your pride.

16. Honor your father and mother by calling them old fogies, and boasting that you know more than they ever did or ever can.

17. Avoid hard work. Never use great muscular power except in a boat race.

There are many foolish things done in this world, and one of the most foolish (and we may add wicked) things is to neglect a Cough or Gold. Now we know that Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Catarrh, and all Chest, Throat, and Lung Troubles, if neglected, are sure to end in Consumption and Death. They may be easily cured by using as directed Dr. Carson's Pulmonary Cough Dropa, there is no remedy equal to it. It never fails. Sold everywhere in large bottles at 50c. For sale by Geo. Rhynas.

The great lung remedy is also a valuable antidote to Oroup. Mrs. Quinn, Wellington-st., Brantford, says: "One of my children was seized with an alarming attack of Croup, as the child got black in the face I was frightened add ran in for my neighbor, Mrs. English, who handed me a bottle of 'Dominion Cough Balsam', which Mr. English, had been using for sore lungs. The first dose gave complete relief, I soon gave another, and very shortly the child was all right and at play, I sent for a bottle to keep in the house as I believe it was the means of saving my child's life."
