RUSSIANS MAY MAKE STAND. LONDON, Aug. 27. The Germans are in full possessi of the entire Brest-Litovsk provinces pressing the Russians both in the stricts southeast of Mitau and east of Kovno, in the effort to reach . th main line of railway which passes through Vilna and Dvinsk to Petrograd. This may, in time, prove the most important of the German operations, although at present they ar using more troops in pursuit of th Russians, who are retiring from th Brest-Litovsk line on either side of the fortress. It is expected, however with the fall of Brest-Litovsk, which has been followed by that of Olita

The Russians, apparently evacuated both Brest-Litovsk and Olita before the Germans arrived. The latter make no claim to the capture of guns An Austrian official report states is too late to accomplish this purpose that Archduke Joseph Ferdinand found the town of Kamieniez-Litovsk in flames when he arrived. There are indications, therefore, that the Russians are still carrying to the rear everything moveable, that might prove of use to the invaders, and burning what they are unable to take

The intimation that the Russians have fortified another front, pending the opportunity of a renewed offenhas received some confirmation. It is stated that the new line is being strengthened by all the latest me thods known to military engineers. The Russian armies are still intact with virtually all their guns, and the of ammunition. For this reason, military writers here are of the opinion that Grand Duke Nicholas should be able to make a stand. The Austro-German losses must have been very heavy, especially during three weeks which intervened tween the fall of Warsaw.

The capture of several German trenches in the Vosges is reported in Paris this evening, but what is considered more significant is the continued activity of the air squadron, which has been bombarding German positions in France, as well as munition factories across the Corresponding Communication factories across the continued Communication factories across the contin ion factories across the German bo

GERMAN WAR LOAN.

LONDON, Aug. 27. A Reuter's despatch from Amster dam says that a telegram from Ber-lin states that the new German war loan which will bear five per cent. interest, will be issued at 99, and will not be redeemable until Oct. 1st, 1924.

EXPRESSES CONFIDENCE.

PARIS, Aug. 27. A joint telegram, expressing entire confidence in the future, has been to Grand Duke Nicholas by Pre sident Poincare, Minister of War Millerand and General Joffre, the French Commander. The text follows: "Our thoughts turn toward your troops who, at the present m hole world by reason of the struggle they are making. With complete con fidence in the final victory of your ar mies, we beg you to accept our re-spectful homage, together with the assurance that more than ever before assirance that more than ever before our armies are happy and proud to co-operate with your Highness and your valiant soldiers. 'The Grand Duke replied: "The sentiments expressed towards the Russian army are reciprocated. The close relations and common accord existing between the commanders of all the Allied ar mies are a certain omen of the glor ious end, in which with God's aid, we will participate."

AVIATION ACTIVITIES.

PARIS, Aug. 27. French aviators continue their activities against certain positions in ossession of the Germans, in the portions of the French line cording to an announcement made o-day by the French War Office German aviators also are taking of ensive measures in this territory French airmen have bombarded two ailroad stations in the Argonne, in German possession, and German aviaors have thrown down explosives on Elermont in the Argonne. A French Eviator last night bombarded at oranch, a plant where the German nanufactured asphyxiating gases nd this morning a French squadro f airships bombarded the railroa station at Muelheim, in the Grand Duchy of Baden. All the French liers returned unharmed.

GRODNO NOW THREATENED.

LONDON, Aug. 27. The Russians, apparently, have de ided to evacuate Grodno, one of th nportant strongholds in their prin ipal line defences, which they etain. A message from Petrograd to Reuter's Telegram Co., quotes the Rusky Invalid as stating that Grodno will be given up when the retreat of its defenders has been covered This message indicates that the fall of Brest-Litovsk, announced at Berlin yesterday, was not known public-ly at Petrograd at one o'clock this afternoon. At the time of filing the essages the Rusky Invalid said tha preparations were under way for the evacuation of Brest-Litovsk, adding that five German and Austrian ar mies were striving to surround i and cut it off from the Kovel dis

PETROGRAD NOT ALARMED.

PETROGRAD, Aug. 27. Weighing the likelihood of a German advance on Petrograd, the Retch points out that the Russian retire-ment covers the approaches to the capital, and that it is extremely doubtful whether the Germans, without undisputed possession of the Baltic Sea, particularly the Gulf of Riga, could undertake the risks attaching to operations against Petrograd this eral von Eichorn on the Niemen.

Kidney Trouble?

The waste material which the Kidneys are intended to remove from the blood, if allowed to accumulate in the system, poison the blood and thus produce deleterious effects.

If from over-work; exposure to cold, or some local injury, the kidneys become congested or inflamed and cannot perform their functions, the system becomes filled with uric poisons. Whenever a dull, heavy pain is felt over the region of the kidneys for any length of time, accompanied by a sallow complexion, loss of appetite, decrease of weight, and a puffy condition under the eyes and in the ankles, a chronic inflammation of the kidneys must be suspected, and if not relieved promptly chronic Bright's Disease will certainly develop.

Abbey's Effervescent Salt, sold everywhere at 25c and 60c which is a Diuretic as well as an Aperient, will carry out of the system the poisonous material which the kidneys cannot get rid of, and will relieve the congestion

A WAITING ATTITUDE.

WASHINGTON, To-Day.

The offer of full satisfaction to the Inited States for the sinking of the ner Arabic with the loss of two American lives was communicated fornally to the State Department yes terday by Count Von Bernstorff Gernan Ambassador, on instructions from he Berlin Foreign Office. The Ambassador read Secretary Lansing a nemorandum, outlining the position their national ideals, by the extensive compensation which they will receive was found that the Arabic was attacked without warning, the Imperial Govshowing incompetence not to agree to ernment not only would promptly disavow the act, but would give the United States full satisfaction. This it is well known would have included reparation for Americans lost and assurances that such tragedies would not be repeated. No further developments of the situation are expected now until the submarine commander who sank the Arabic has reported to Berlin. Meantime, President Wilson and Secretary Lansing, though visibly encouraged and relieved by Von Bernstorff's assurances and by re ports from Ambassador Gerard at his Bohr it is noted the Germans have only two armies, that of General von Buelow in Courland, and that of General von Speak there must be forthcoming.

what all the evidence received seemed to prove was an "unfriendly act." It came known to-night that the State Department had been informed that Germany was ready to renew discussion of the Lusitania incident and offer reparation for American lives lost when that vessel was sent to the bottom without warning by a German submarine. There has been no response to the last American note this subject. It is known that the United States would not listen to reparation proposals with the situation created by the sinking of the Arabic still pending and without the attack on the Arabic disavowed and guarantees given against repetitions. The German communication explaining the Minister of Finance, Sir Joseph Ward, Husitania was torpedoed as a reprisal when introducing the Budget. A against Britain under a misapprehension that she was armed and that the killing of Americans was regretted and not intended, and offering reparation, probably would pave the way

DESPERATE FIGHTING ON GALLI-POLI PENINSULA — GALLANT CHARGE OF IRISH DIVISION.

LONDON, To-Day.

A despatch to the Reuter's Telegra Company from the Dardanelles, dated August 19, says: For the moment severe fighting has come to a stop along the front of our new positions ound that the Arabic was sunk with- after the week of battles which followed the landing at Suvla Bay. ost important advantage secured has een a large extension of territory held by us on the northern shore of the Peninsula, resting upon Suvla Bay, with its left occupying a long ridge which follows the coast inland for several miles. Our army holds the Plain southward where the heights of Anzac look down upon it, so that we are in virtual possession from the cliffs overlooking the Gulf of Saros almost to Gabatepe. Describing the charge of the Irish Division on the Turkish hill to the left of the Suvla Bay position, the correspondent says: The Turks came out to meet them and on the saddle between the two crests. our ability to safeguard Petrograd Bayonets were flashing and stabbing our armies can stand another winter for several minutes before the Turks without any inconvenience. Every began to give way. Then they left the crest and ran down over the ridge, new force of two million men will the Irishmen standing up and firing down on them, while at intervals the and will be ready to take the field British machine guns on the hills be- the spring. General Russeky is th hind drowned the sound of rifle fire whenever the gunners were able to get a clear view of the fleeing Turks. It is my settlement of the set of the fleeing trucks. The battle for Sari Bahr Hill, which the Australian and New Zealanders captured but were compelled to evacuate because the troops on their left did not advance far enough, was a left degree to the correspondent, characterized the suggestion that the Allies most desperate one, according to the correspondent, who says: The dead lie thick everywhere and the stench is appalling. On the ninth, the Turks ame down in great numbers from th ridge above and tried to sweep ou men off the hill entirely. They them selves were driven back, however, with frightful losses. Being unable to bury their dead, the Turks have thrown their bodies down the gulley, until they are stopped by the nature of the ground, while others thrown after them are stopped by the first, consequently the whole gully is choked with Turkish dead. The Austral ians and New Zealanders have gained another addition to their newly occupied territory in their narrow po tion. They now have elbow room and are now in touch with cross the Plain at Suvla Bay, and what is not their least important advantage is that they have a supply of fresh water within their own position.
