Wayward Youth Gets Birched.

The new birch-switch, brought into being recently for dealing with hardened and incorrigible youths, was again used to-day on a 12 year old boy, who his parents confessed had gone beyond correction. The lad, who is no stranger to the police, figured in a new episode on Saturday last when he was sent on an errand by his mother with sixty cents. After treating himself on what dainties he could and having spent all the money, he remained out all night and was found by the night police asleep in a stable on the higher levels. This morning he appeared before Judge Morris, who called the father of the lad to explain matters. The parent told a tale of woe and stated that he could get no good of his son, despite whippings. The Judge discounted that statement and ordered that the lad be taken to the corridor of the police station and given three lashes with the birch switch. His Honor felt firmly convinced that after the lad receives his stripes there will be a tendency towards reformation.

The Gallant Major Jackson, M.C.,

MAKES SUPREME SACRIFICE.

Yesterday Mr. John Jackson, Commission Merchant, was in receipt of the subpoenaed cable from London, conveying the sad intelligence that his son had made the supreme sacrifice: "Deeply regret to inform you that Major A. M. Jackson, R. E., Twelfth Field Co., died of wounds, April 27th. The Army Council express their sympathy."

"SECRETARY WAR OFFICE."

Major Alec Jackson, who was one of the youngest officers of his rank, having celebrated the 24th anniversary of his birthday in October last, left here for England 15 years ago, and after a brilliant career at the great military training institution at Woolwich, entered the College of Instruction at Chatham and was there when war broke out. He left London for Ireland with the 12th Field Co. of Royal Engineers, shortly after returned to Cambridge with his Company, a Unit of the 6th Division and embarked for France early in September, 1914. At that time he was a Sub-Lieutenant and for his devotion to duty was made a Captain in 1915. He was then transferred to the 26th Division, of which he acted Adjutant for several months and then rejoined his own former Company with the rank of Major. In the King's Birthday Honours list last year he appeared as Major Jackson, M. C., the honour having been conferred on him for distinguished services rendered in the field. On several occasions he had been mentioned in despatches. Notwithstanding that he was on active service for two years and nine months he was wounded only twice and then slightly. His first mishap was met in August, 1915 and the next one in May of last year. That the gallant young officer and soldier, who has now sealed his devotion to the Empire, was one of marked ability, is demonstrated by his distinctions gained at school and the rapid promotions won by him for valour on the battle field. In 1914 he played in the big football match—Army vs. Navy—and was personally congratulated after the game by His Majesty the King. He was here on a visit four years ago just after getting his commission. Newfoundland loses a bright and promising son in the passing of Major Jackson. The grief of the bereaved father, to whom widespread sympathy is expressed, will be assuaged by the knowledge that his gallant son laid down his life that others may live and in the noble cause that right may triumph.

Children's Fancy Ball

A GREAT SUCCESS.

About one hundred and fifty happy laughing children, dressed in unique and beautiful costumes, attended the Children's Fancy Dress Ball in the new C. C. C. Hall, on Saturday afternoon. His Excellency the Governor and Lady Davidson accompanied by their two little daughters, the latter in fancy costume attended. A number of the little ones gave recitations which were rendered in a faultless manner, after which dancing to the sweet strains of music from the C. C. C. Band was taken up. Games familiar to children were also played, in which the little ones entered with that keen enjoyment and zest that is characteristic of children.

The prize for girls, a silver spangle, was awarded to Miss Gertrude Collins, six years old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Collins. She recited Madame Vernon Castle. Master Allister McNeill, aged 5, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. McNeill, won the prize for boys, a Pearl Pocket Knife. He represented a Country Gentleman of Old, in a costume similar to one worn by his grandfather on a like occasion, when a boy of tender years. Teas, candies and nice things were served the ball room guests by the ladies in charge; and at 7 p.m., long after bed time for a great many of the little dancers, the happy affair was concluded.

THEY ALL VOLUNTEERED.
T. H. HITS:—We should like to print this story in letters of gold. It is of a Colonel on the British front who wanted twenty men to face almost certain death. He called the whole company together and made the situation clear to them. Then he asked for twenty volunteers to advance one pace. He loved his men, and it was almost more than he could bear. He closed his eyes to keep back his tears, and when he opened them the men stood in exactly the same formation. He was pained. "Is there not one volunteer?" he asked. A sergeant stepped forward at salute. "Everyone has advanced one pace, sir," he said.

FISHERMEN SUFFER HEAVILY.—During the past few weeks and since preparations have been made for the codfishery, local fishermen have suffered heavily. The nets, which were set out on the grounds to secure choice berths, were more or less destroyed by ice and heavy sea. The damage is more extensive, we learn, than at first thought, amounting to hundreds of dollars.

Impressive Service at St. Thomas's

Commemorating the Entry of the United States into the War—The Rector's Eloquent Sermon.

When the steeple bell ceased calling the worshippers to 11 o'clock service yesterday morning at St. Thomas's Church, the sacred edifice was filled with a devout congregation, all of whom assembled to offer to the great White Throne their prayers of thankfulness, in Commemoration of the entry of the United States into the war on the side of the Allies.

Among those who attended were His Excellency the Governor and Lady Davidson, Hon. J. R. Bennett, Acting Prime Minister, and Mrs. Bennett, J. S. Benedict, Esq., U. S. Consul, Mrs. Benedict and Miss Benedict; H. Bradshaw, Esq., Vice-Consul; M. P. M. Suitor, Vice-Consul of France; J. E. Orr, Esq., Mrs. Orr and Miss Orr, J. Hawvermale, Esq., T. Hartnett, Esq., and several other American citizens resident in or visiting the city.

Draped around the pulpit were the Union Jack and the Stars and Stripes.

a true tonic and a rich food to overcome tiredness, nourish their nerves and feed their blood. Start with SCOTT'S to-day—and say "NO" to substitutes.

This may be defined as a great consecration, as a creed which declares that our resources are equal to our responsibilities, a determination to wage the conflict at all costs to a final decisive triumph. To the French it was a war for the right; to the British it is for the fulfilment of solemn obligations; to the Russian it is the destruction of autocracy; to the American it is the vindication of the principles of Peace and Justice. Fat Without Fear of Indigestion or Sour, Acid Stomach Instant relief! "Pape's Diapiesin" ends your stomach trouble forever.

Wonder what upset your stomach—what portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sour, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a Little Pape's Diapiesin and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women to-day know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A Little Diapiesin occasionally keeps this delicate organ regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapiesin which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. Please, for your sake, don't go on and on with a weak, disordered stomach; it's so unnecessary.

ed churches of Belgium; a cry wrung from the hearts of prayerful wives and distilled in blooddrops from the souls of heart-breaking mothers—a cry for peace—but peace with honour.

"To-day England, France, Russia and America will fight together to make a great world. The war has become a great moral crusade, pure in its vision, lofty in its purpose and great in its endeavour. And as such we joyfully hail it." Shortly before the Benediction was pronounced the congregation stood at attention as the organ pealed forth the American National Anthem, which was followed by the singing of "God Save The King."

NOTE OF THANKS.—The family of the late Mrs. E. Haviland Edgar beg to acknowledge with gratitude to all who sent telegrams and letters of sympathy to them in their recent bereavement; and to the following who sent wreaths and flowers: The Ladies' Aid of St. Andrew's Church, the Teachers of the West End Presbyterian Sunday School, Mesdames W. Barker, Robert Pike, C. Tessier, J. Valentine, H. Duder, Walter Edgar, M. S. Sullivan, Mrs. Leslie, Whitbourne; Mesdames Mark Pike, Chas. Parsons, Alex. Wood, Fred. Pike and others. These expressions of loving regard for the deceased in some measure comforted them in their great sorrow and unexpected bereavement.—adv.
