FLAT LENSES.

Of course you all know of the man who has been redeeming the Holy Lands from the terror of Moslem rule; but few know anything of his personality. Edmund Allenby is 57 years of age, and entered the army as a member of the Inskilling Dragoons. Before being sent to the east, he fought in the retreat of Mons. His quiet manner and total lack of self-assertiveness, gave rise to the belief that he would not prove equal to the occasion in certain circles. His wonderful campaign has proven for all time, that ability is as far from being associated with bluster as day is night.—Argus in Halifax Chronicle. us explain them.
