

Memorial Lecture.

MEMORIAL LECTURE IN GALLIPOOLI.—Mr. Nangle repeated his lecture on the history of the Newfoundland Regiment in Gallipoli, before a large audience in the Casino last night. Mr. Nangle, in his tale well and his description of trench life on the campaign, and his many anecdotes related to all his auditors. The lecture was illustrated by 2,000 feet of film and numerous lantern slides. Mr. Nangle explained each scene in detail and maps showed the route of the Eastern Front. The story of the "River of Blood" and the "removable" photographs of the landing from this ship were presented, and Mr. Nangle explained the Gallipoli campaign. The photographs particularly of the men of the Australians who were shown with their medals. Reference was also made to the photographs shown of the work done by the War Graves Commission. The lecturer also described the last resting places of our dead soldiers. The lecture will be repeated to-night and to-morrow when it is hoped those who have not yet heard this interesting story of this opportunity of hearing the story of the history of Gallipoli.

Benedict Dined.

AT THE WEST END.—The directors of Harvey & Co. gave a dinner at the West End Restaurant last night in honor of Mr. Benedict, who will shortly be present on his return to the army of Benedict. Over 100 guests were present and the chair was occupied by Mr. H. A. Outerbridge, the unavoidable absence of Mr. G. Gosling. An excellent dinner was provided and after full had been done it, the toast was proceeded with. The speaker was of a very high order. The list of good wishes were extended to Mr. Benedict on his appointment into the ancient rank of Benedict. During the evenings were rendered by Messrs. E. F. Corrick, J. Walsh, E. J. Corrick, P. J. Grace, J. Savin, H. Hudson, W. Myler, C. Noonan, and Mr. William White. In the most list congratulatory wishes were made by Messrs. J. B. Hammond and E. H. H. The affair lasted till midnight and the gathering dispersed with the aid of the National Anthem. Mr. Nangle was the toast list: The Chairman; The Chairmen; The Country—Prop. Mr. A. G. Rap. Mr. C. Mr. G. Gosling. The Chairman—Prop. Mr. E. W. Rap. Mr. H. A. Outerbridge.

Hockey Notes.

ST. BONA'S DEFEATED.—St. Bon's of the Terra Nova vs. St. Bon's of the Terra Nova League hockey team did itself justice last night. The result was a poor game, rough play was much more prominent in the last half, particularly in the last quarter. The score was 1-0 in favor of St. Bon's. The game was decided to-night when the St. Bon's met in the second period. If the Feildians succeed in St. Bon's, a play-off will be necessary to decide the champion. St. Bon's won their first game in becoming College Champions. THE GAME.—To-morrow game is expected to be the best of the season. The St. Bon's will again meet, and as this is a fairly even match, a close result.

ANNUAL TEA AND ENTERTAINMENT.

The Cathedral Men's Bible Class Annual tea and entertainment took place in the Synod Hall last night. The attendance was fully up to expectations, and over 500 people were present during the evening. At 7 o'clock a dainty supper was served by the lady friends of the class in a manner which gained the admiration of all who partook of it. Following the supper a delightful concert was held. Canon Reeves occupied the chair and in opening the concert programme he expressed the thanks of the class to the ladies who had served the supper in such a capable manner. The following programme added considerably to the success of the evening: Selections, C.L.B. Band; Monologues, by Mr. A. F. Holmes; Songs by Misses A. Russell, M. Mitchell, Messrs. K. Trappell, W. A. Tucker, H. F. Glass, Wallace, Jardine, Hickey Trio, and a recitation by Mr. H. A. Brown. During the evening candy was sold. The proceeds which amounted to a large sum, will be used for the Missions to Seamen with which the class was affiliated in 1913.

Famous Selections

Heard at the Nickel.

Miss Ruth Chase and Mr. George Dale, the popular Nickel soloists, were heard in charming selections last night. Miss Chase's renditions were "Song of the Soul" and "At Dawning," whilst Mr. Dale sang the celebrated operatic number from "Aida" entitled "Celeste Aida." It is always a musical treat for those artists as their singing is such as presents an individual appeal, which commands the keenest attention of the listener.

One of the most gripping scenes ever enacted before the motion picture camera is the thrilling cattle stampede which furnished a smashing climax to "The Sky Pilot," shown at the Nickel Theatre yesterday.

"The Sky Pilot," adapted from Ralph Connor's story, was directed by King Vidor, the young director genius whose "Jack Knife Man" was heralded as one of the best pictures of the past year. It is released by Associated First National Exhibitors, Inc. as a Cathrine Curtis Production.
