

Famous Old Recipe
for Cough SyrupEarly and cheaply made at home, but it beats them all for quick results.

Thousands of housewives have found that they can save two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough syrups, by using this well-known recipe for making cough syrup at home. It is simple and cheap but it is as good as any of the others. It is not equal for prompt results. It takes right hold of a cough and gives immediate relief, usually stopping an ordinary cough in 24 hours or less. It is made of sugar syrup, either of pure cane sugar or of corn syrup, and a little molasses. If you prefer, you may use honey. It is good, keeps perfectly, and lasts a family a long time. It is a refreshing how quickly it acts, soothing every air passage of the throat and lungs—relieves the membranes, and gradually the annoying throat and chest disappear. Nothing better for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness or hoarse asthma.

It is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, known the world over for its healing effect on the lungs.

Any disappointment by asking for "Pine" with full directions and don't expect anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pine Co., Toronto, Ont.

THE GOLFER'S SWAN SONG.

This year my game was much the same, Despite my hopes Of early spring I count the list Of putts I've missed And sadly own A faulty swing.

I thought in May That I should play Of golf a much Superior brand, I think I vowed In a manner proud That many a silver Cup I'd land.

And I recall No score that marks Increasing skill, I've had a few Long drives and true, But I'm an awkward Golfer still.

One drive, one nine That's every time, I've not a golfer Make, I fear, But hope remains, If I take pains, I'll play a better Game—next year!

Tinkling Garter
Bells Destroy Hus-ban's Peace

Church bells tolled out the tidings of a marriage romance of Mr. and Mrs. Alcide Guertin had begun two years ago. Garter bells tolling mysteriously wrecked the happy home last week.

Mrs. Alcide vowed he would never tolerate another rent towards the support of his spouse till she tore the garters from her raiment.

She claims she has a right to be handsome if she wants.

And so the situation remains.

It was aired in the Recorder's Court when Alcide Guertin was arraigned on a charge of non-support. He pleaded not guilty and will stand trial in a week.

The accused declares that if he is to support his wife, he must first show some consideration for his peace of mind. Ever since belted garters became a part of women's apparel he has been driven nearly mad by the constant sounding of the bells, he says. He is awakened in the morning by the music of the metal hangings against his wife's knees and lulled to sleep at night by the clanging of Mrs. Guertin's new garters.

And the horrible style came into being, the Guertin legends say, an ideal one from every standpoint, the husband asserted this morning, but the bells on his wife's knees earned him from the nest. He admitted that bells were all right in their place. They could be rung in church steeples and he would remain silent. They could be sounded from front doors and he would grin and bear it. But when the women of his family took to whistling them about the lower extremities it was time to do something about it. He was willing to be made a martyr for the sake of husbands in general he declared to-day after he put up $100 bail to secure his release.

Wilson Blamed
WAS RESPONSIBLE FOR U.S. FAILURE TO ENTER LEAGUE, SAYS LODGE.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—The failure of the United States to enter the League of Nations should be charged wholly to President Wilson, according to the late Senator Henry Cabot Lodge in "the Senate and the League of Nations," a volume of more than 400 pages, to be issued to-morrow. The late Senator denies that the late President Wilson was idealistic.

"The key to all he did," wrote Senator Lodge, "was that he thought of everything in terms of Wilson."
