LONDON AND PRECINCTS.

The annual epidemic of white hats is about to set in.

Four drunks were discharged by the Police Magistrate this morning.

Mr. Lawson, of St. Joseph, Mo., is visiting her nephew, Mr. George Stinson, Rectory street.

A house and lot on King street near Adelaide, was sold yesterday at auction by Neil Cooper to Mr. Jones, builder.

Annie Pixley has arrived at the Fraser House, Port Stanley, accompanied by her husband, Mr. Fulford, and Mrs. Fraser, of this city.

A large collie dog was acting in a strange manner on Dundas street, between Clarence and Wellington streets, this morning. It was shot by P. C. Tooley.

Patrick and Julia Muldigan, an old couple, were up again at the Police Court this morning charged with insanity. They will be tried before Judge Elliott.

Arrangements have been completed with the Michigan Central Railroad Company for a citizens' grand union cheap excursion from London via St. Thomas to Detroit on Dominion Day.

Mr. Thomas Carrothers, of Guelph, formerly of London, has returned to the city and is going into the wood business again. His many friends will be pleased to welcome him back.

If some of those little girls who are so fond of running along the base of the fountain in Victoria Park, are not more careful, there will be a drowning accident there, said the chronic kicker.

The many friends of Mr. Edward Morris will be pleased to hear that he has severed his connection with W. H. Heald & Co., to accept a more lucrative position as inspector for the City Gas Company.

The many friends of Miss Isabella Mitchell, of Bellevue, Dufftown, Scotland, who a few years ago made a tour and the United States, and spent a summer in this city, will regret to hear of her death, which took place on May 20 at Dullin House, the residence of her sister, Mrs. Cowie.

In the course of a funeral service in the Memorial Church yesterday morning a dog wandered into the building, and after the audience departed gave indications of being mad. P. C. Tooley was notified and put several pistol balls into the cur and dispatched it. A Queen's avenue lady, hearing the yelp of the dog, sent over a bottle of chloroform to ease its sufferings.

The Supreme Court at Ottawa yesterday heard a part of the argument in the celebrated insurance case of the Attorney-General of Ontario vs. the Atna Insurance Company. This case is the one in which the 26 companies insuring the Ontario public buildings were to pay a loss on the London Asylum because it occurred in a wing and not in the main building, as the companies contend. The Government contends that the policies covered the wing as much as anything else. The courts in Toronto decided twice against the companies, and now they appeal at Ottawa. Mr. J. E. Irving, Q.C., for the Attorney-General, and Wallace Nesbitt, Q.C., for the companies, Mr. C. Robinson, Q.C., will take part with Mr. Nesbitt in the argument.

An Accident.

A young son of Mr. H. A. Stringer was run over at the corner of Richmond and King streets about 5 o'clock last evening by a gravel wagon. The little fellow was crossing the street and was knocked down by the horses, one wheel of the heavy wagon passing over his neck and the other across his back. He was taken into the Rogers House and a doctor called to his father's residence, Market Square. It was found that he had sustained a fracture of the shoulder blade. It is said the driver might have avoided the accident if a little care had been exercised.

Serious Accident to a Lineman.

Mr. William Stanley, of this city, who is employed by the Bell Telephone Company, was struck by a wire while putting in poles between this city and St. Thomas. Some of the men were engaged in putting up a pole, when Stanley, seeing the likelihood of its falling, went to the assistance of the others, but it fell on him, while the others escaped. The pole struck him on the side across the hip bone, and he was unable to walk after the accident. Medical examination showed that his hip bone was broken.

East Middlesex.

No Liberal candidate in this campaign is doing a better fight than Mr. Thomas Purdon in East Middlesex. Mr. Purdon is a young man of pluck, character and ability. He has proved by his conduct of the campaign that he will make a good representative, and that he has the capacity to deal with public questions with strength and wisdom. It will be very much to the advantage of the Liberal party to elect Mr. Purdon to the House of Commons. Mr. Tooley by Mr. Purdon, and every Liberal in East Middlesex should work without ceasing from now until 5 o'clock on Thursday to place at the head of the poll, and bring this constituency back to the support of Ontario's Grand Old Man.—Toronto Globe.

Death of Mr. James McHarg.

The death is announced of Mr. James McHarg, of Hamilton, the father of Mr. John McHarg, G. T. R. station agent, of this city. Deceased was 71 years of age and was a resident of Hamilton for 40 years. He was highly respected by all who were acquainted with him, and was one time one of the best known travelers on the road. McHarg was a member of Hamilton Lodge, C. O. F., for 20 years, was a life-long Liberal in politics, and a consistent member of Eskine Presbyterian Church. The funeral took place at St. Margaret's Cemetery, Hamilton, the brethren of the C. O. F. attending in a body.

Rooney Sweeney in Trouble.

Rooney Sweeney, a well-known catcher of the Tecumseh team, appeared behind the cage at the Police Court this morning charged with drunkenness. Rooney appeared to be in no means refreshed by his night in the cells and presented rather a shabby appearance. Pitcher Maguire, of the same team, was in the court room, and laid an information on the spot against Sweeney for drunkenness. It appears that Maguire drew $30 from the Bank of Toronto last week, and had $40 in $10 bills in his pocket on Sunday evening when he retired to his room in the Grant House. On waking Monday morning he found this gone, and immediately informed the police. Detectives Phair and Ryder arrested Sweeney last night in a muddled condition, and a search revealed $37 40 on his person tied up in a handkerchief. The prisoner stated that he only took the money to take care of it until Maguire was sober out of kindness to him. "Mac" did not seem inclined to believe this statement, and denied that he was intoxicated. Having had five drinks decided to be tried by the judge, and may be accommodated to-morrow. He begged Maguire to withdraw the charge, but the law forbids this. Neither of the men are active members of the Tecumsehs, their inclinations being such that Manager Fessenden ceased to find them useful.

Missionary Life in India.

Rev. Mr. Wilkie, who has been a missionary in India for some years and intends returning to that country in July, delivered a very interesting and instructive address last night in the First Presbyterian Church before a very fair audience. Mr. Wilkie accompanied his discourse with practical illustrations of Hindu life thrown out by a magic lantern, a somewhat novel method, but one which greatly enhanced the interest of the lecture. The map of India was first shown, and the districts and cities of interest pointed out. The speaker dwelt chiefly with Central India, his sphere of labor in that country, and described the habits and customs of its inhabitants in a graphic manner. This district had never experienced a famine and without any manuring the land produced two crops a year, yet its products all went to the native princes, some of whom had revenues of $3,000,000 annually, while the common people were in a state of starvation. The speaker gave some amusing facts in connection with the sacred animals which the natives venerate so much, and minutely described the costumes and manners of the inhabitants. He declared Mohammedanism to be on the decline, and that many of the followers of the Prophet had turned to paganism. The condition of the women was degraded in the extreme, and they were subject to all the brutal humors of their husbands. These unfortunate could only be reached through their own sex, and hence the necessity for female missionaries. In conclusion the speaker appealed to the Christians of civilized lands to aid in elevating the people of the unguided, but rich and promising country of India.

Death of Mrs. Travers.

On Sunday last Mrs. Harriet Charlotte Travers, formerly of Morestown, county Cork, Ireland, and relict of the late Mr. Richard H. Travers, died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. John Going, Port Stanley. Mrs. Travers' death was very sudden. She awoke about 4 o'clock on Sunday morning and complained of a pain in her side and then quietly passed away. She was born in Cork, Ireland, in June 5, 1796, and was within a few days of being 95 years old. She came to Canada in 1850, and settled in this city. She was a highly educated woman and spoke three languages, and was also a devout Christian. The survivors of her family are: Mrs. George Gaffney and Mrs. Charles A. Wagner, of this city; Mrs. John Going, widow of the late John Going, of Port Stanley, and Elma Travers, M.D., of Amboy, Ill. The late Dr. Travers, of Fingal, so well-known in the county of Eglis, was her son. The funeral takes place from Port Stanley to Fingal Cemetery.

The Donohue Case.

In the case of Donohue vs. Donohue at Osprey Hall, Toronto, yesterday—judgment in action tried at London with a jury. Action to recover balance of price of a cab, which the jury found was sold by the plaintiff to the defendant, Timothy Donohue, as not to his brother, William Donohue. The defendant, Timothy Donohue, pleaded infancy. It was argued by the plaintiff that if William acted as agent for Timothy, who by reason of his infancy, could not appoint an agent, William must be held to be personally liable as having guaranteed his being validly appointed agent for Timothy. The jury found that William professed to act as agent for Timothy, but the learned judge held that his agency did not extend further than the carrying on of the plaintiff's business of the cab price of the cab paid, and taking back a receipt. Action dismissed as against William Donohue with costs. With regard to Timothy Donohue the learned judge held that it is not before the court, being an infant, not appearing by guardian but by solicitor, and that the proceedings, so far as he is concerned, are null, referring to the case of Hughes vs. Brown, 13 P.R. 17. Order made setting aside the appearing by solicitor, the service of the statement of claim upon the solicitor, and all the subsequent proceedings so far as the infant is concerned. George McNab (London) for plaintiff. Graydon (London) for defendant, William Donohue. Toole (London) for defendant, Timothy Donohue.

An Enviable Reputation.

Continued demand for obtaining the best possible value for their money in cigars should make the "Highland Lassie" 5-cent cigar, manufactured by H. McKay & Co., of London, a household name. This cigar has been subjected to the most complete tests by the great majority of the smokers of the Dominion, and all of them pronounce it one of the best articles in the Canadian market. Messrs. H. McKay & Co. take a special pride in its manufacture and are particular that none but the choicest specimens of fillers and wrappers enter into its composition. The "Highland Lassie" reputation is of sufficient repute to satisfy the most skeptical of its worth.
