

The Magi's Touch

Of Hood's Sarsaparilla. You smile at it at the idea. But if you suffer from Dyspepsia

And indigestion, try a bottle, and before you have taken half a dozen doses, you will involuntarily think, and no doubt exclaim,

"That Just Hits It!"

"That soothing effect is a magic touch!" Hood's Sarsaparilla gently tones and strengthens the stomach and digestive organs, invigorates the liver, creates a natural, healthy desire for food, gives refreshing sleep, and in short, raises the health tone of the entire system. Remember

CURLING.INFLUENCES OF THE GAME.

"One way or another," says an English writer on curling, "there is enough of interest and sporting variety about the pastime to account amply for Scotsmen's all-embracing absorption in it. And nowhere does the national temperament show in a better light than upon a curling pond. The harder the frost the more surely does the community at large thaw into hilarity and downright mirth. Never is the handshake warmer or more cordial than at such a season, never do men relax and unbend more generally. There is pawky humor in every other word that is uttered in the course of a game. The outmost subject of your acquaintance becomes good company, and reveals little unexpected kinks of character under the stimulus of the hearty pastime and its traditional concomitants of beef and greens. A man may be hard and 'near' in all the other relations of life, but that fault must have crept on him beyond redemption if he cannot sometimes permit himself the fun of a curling match with his neighbor for a ton of coal for the poor—a combination of sport and philanthropy much in vogue in those northern regions."

AT BRAMPTON.

BRAMPTON, Mich., March 22.—An interesting game was played last evening between Prospect Park of Toronto and the Brampton curling clubs, the home men winning by 73 to 58.

THE TRIGGER.

HUNTING IN SOMALILAND.
London World: Sir Henry Tichborne, who returned to town at the end of last week from Somaliland, has had excellent sport during the three months that he was away. Part of the time he had the companionship of Mr. Seton-Karr, but for some weeks he was alone, and his bag included two lions, two rhinoceroses, an ostrich with eight eggs, for Leopards and many number of antelopes, hartebeests and hyenas.

ATHLETICS.

McAULIFFE AND GRIFFO MATCHED.
NEW YORK, March 22.—A large crowd of prominent men assembled this afternoon to witness the making of the match between Jack McAuliffe, light-weight champion of America, and Albert Griffiths, better known as "Young Griffo," feather-weight champion of Australia. They are to fight to a finish with small gloves for a stake of $10,000 a side, and before the club offering the largest purse, and the men are to fight at 135 pounds or under. The battle will take place about Oct. 10, or as near the time of the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight as possible.

THAT BIRTHDAY PARTY

Held by the Queen's Avenue Methodists

Was a Great Success—Excellent Programme Furnished by Local Talent.

The City Hall proper was packed to its utmost capacity and both galleries were well filled last night, when the great birthday party of the Queen's Avenue Methodist Ladies' Aid Society was given. It was naturally expected that the party would be well attended, for the ladies had sent out a goodly number of invitations. Each was accompanied by a neat little sack, and in the sack each person accepting the invitation was asked to place one cent for each year of his or her age. The scheme was a new and novel one, and the ladies expected it would realize a good sum towards the church funds. It will, especially if the terms of the invitations were carried out, for there were scores there whose heads were white with advanced years, hundreds past middle age, hundreds in the prime of life, and numerous children. The crowd began to gather early, and the ladies at the door were kept busy piling up the well-filled sacks. Soon the main hall was packed, and the galleries filled. Miss Owey presided, and the evening was a pleasant one. Ex-Mayor Spencer presided, and on behalf of the Ladies' Aid expressed pleasure in welcoming all to the birthday party. He read the invitation, and also several original replies which had been received. Mr. Spencer then briefly introduced the programme, which comprised:

Selection.....Choral Club
Recitation.....Miss Owey
Duet.....Misses Higgins
Selection.....Prof. W. C. Barron
Recitation.....Miss Love
Solo.....Miss Steele
Solo.....Miss Owey
Quartet.....Messrs. Fetherston, Saunders, Soper and Dr. Holmes.
Duet.....Two pianos.....Prof. Barron and Reading.....Mr. Thos. Alexander
Solo.....Miss Higgins
Recitation.....Miss Owey

Every number was rendered in an exceedingly clever manner. Miss Owey made her third appearance in public, and won favor in the eyes of her audience, while Miss Love well sustained her previous reputation as an elocutionist. "The Old Brigade," by the male quartet, was vigorously encored, and in response "On the March" was given. Prof. Barron's brilliant work at the piano was up to its usually high mark. During the evening a committee of ladies disposed of large quantities of cakes, and at the conclusion of the programme ten minutes intermission was announced in which to purchase the Sunday supply of sweets.

THE ELECTRIC RAILWAY

People Have Talked About and Wanted It For Years—What the Men of London Have Been Set Talking About This Spring.

The interest which has constantly been exhibited in the proposed electric railway for London since the question was first brought to the council's attention some years ago, has not abated in the least. From the very outset people expressed a desire to have the trolley cars in preference to the slow, bob-tail system. It will not only afford more rapid and commodious transit, but it traverses a greater area and give a larger number of men employment. And, now that the council is asked, so far as the council is concerned, to accept of the same by the company is eagerly looked for.

But still this question has not created more interest among the public in general than has the new spring stock of Harry Lenox among all classes of men in the city. Mr. Lenox is the well-known merchant tailor, whose store is situated at the corner of Carling and Richmond streets. These have been his headquarters for several years, and this year Mr. Lenox has had increased business, caused by the general satisfaction which he gives his patrons. The stock at all seasons is complete in every department, and includes the noblest and the best goods—and at a reasonable price. The spring of 1895 part of Mr. Lenox. He has in store a beautiful selection of which great care has been taken. The goods are beautiful, soft, and of black and grays for spring overcoats, and going from the pretty imported goods are being made. A good fit is always guaranteed.

How Troubles Are Divided.

Troubles are pretty evenly divided, after all, says the Philadelphia Times. A girl may go nearly distracted when she feels that the band of her dress skirt has come unfastened, but think of the misery of the man who has to dance the neck of his shirt open and let his collar and necktie slide up to his ears. A girl has to fold her hands and wait for a man to ask her to go to the theatre with him, but when she does go she has the comfort of making the man spend a lot of money. That consoles her to a certain extent. A girl has to entertain stupid callers whether she wants to or not, because society demands it. A man has to dance with girls who can't even walk gracefully, because if he did not his hostess would consider him rude. A girl carries her life in her hands when she tries to get within a rod of a bargain counter, but she can walk along the street in peace. Half a dozen bootblacks don't yell, "Shine, sir, shine!" at her. A girl has heaps of trouble with her complexion and her front hair, but she doesn't have to have a razor go traveling over her face every day. A girl is very likely to spend weeks in planning the construction of a new hat, but when she does get it people don't sit on it, as they always do on men's headgear. Perhaps that's because a girl doesn't leave her hat lying around on sofas and chairs.

A BALL OF SNAKES.
SAN DIEGO, Cal., March 23.—The dam builders at the Lake Mesa reservoir exploded a large charge of powder recently among the rocks. A large black ball was shot high into the air. The blasters wondered what it was. When the ball struck the earth it unraveled into dozens of rattlesnakes, and as the reptiles glided away in their efforts to escape the workmen killed a score or more with their shovels. It is estimated that the ball of hibernating snakes contained 50 or more who were enjoying a winter siesta in the den destroyed by the blast.

WE'RE ALL RIGHT

For the spring and summer trade. Everything is now in readiness. Our importations are to hand, and the new and pretty ideas embodied in this season's materials far surpass anything yet brought to London. All eyes should be centered on our WASH DRESS GOODS DEPARTMENT. We have spared no pains to make it the fashionable place to buy fashionable goods. Our prints, Chambrays, Gingham, Ducks, Drillettes, Cambrics, etc., cover nearly 75 feet of counter room. Some idea, therefore, may be obtained of our gigantic stock and its wonderful assortment of very pretty patterns. But you must see them, examine them, buy them and wear them to know what they are really worth.

YOU'RE ALL RIGHT

If you buy from us. You can't make any mistake in securing some of our splendid variety of patterns and colorings, which this season are greater and more artistic than ever before. We are selling a white ground American print in fast colors at 5c, formerly considered to be cheap at 6½d. A heavy indigo blue American print, warranted absolutely fast, at 12½c, sold formerly at 15c and considered cheap. Pink and blue chambrays, fine quality at 12½c. A very fine line of English chambrays, manufacturer's sample pieces, very choice designs, made to sell at 20c, we are offering them at 15c only, because we secured them at a bargain. You should participate in the profit. A splendid line of Oxford Shirting at 12½c instead of 15c.

A new feature in print goods is our striped crinkle at 20c. This is a decided novelty. Makes up handsomely and looks more like silk than print.
