THE CANADIAN PACKING CO. LONDON.

LOCAL MARKET.

London, Friday, July 21. Hay sold well at the market today; there were 16 loads on the stand; all were new hay; sales were made mostly at $7 per ton; a few loads which were not properly cured sold at $6 per ton.
One load of straw sold at $4.
About 10 loads of oats sold at $1 35 to $1 38 per cwt. There will be a considerable quantity of raspberries brought in in the next couple of weeks. "I would not be surprised to see a drop in-prices," was the remark made by a dealer. Several loads of raspberries were offered today; the sold at 10c and 11c per box by the load. GRAIN, PER CENTAL.

STOCK MARKETS.

H. C. Becher, stock broker, next Free Press building, received the following by private wire from Bartlett, Frazier & Carrington today:

New York, July 21.-Noon. - The course of today's market was distinctly disappointing to the most who looked for higher prices. It has been hoped that the increased dividends in Union Pacific and Copper which were declared yesterday would stimulate speculatian, and it was surmised that the increase in copper would be considered an indication that the Standard Oil Trust interests were in favor of higher prices. The market at no time has been strong and there have been evidences that stocks are being continually sold. In Union Pacific liquidation took place around 128%.

Decorations for Old Boys.

To the Editor of The Advertiser: suggest that Queen's avenue, Richmond to Adelaide, be decorated on both sides with rows of Chinese lanterns. It would make a most effective decoration to this beautiful avenue, with its grand rows of maples, beautiful lawns, and new pavement. By united effort by residents the effect would be enchanting-the expense slight.

CASE OF INTEREST TO HOTEL MEN

Proprietor of Metropolitan Sold Cigars On Sunday-Charged With Violation of Law.

A case of considerable interest to hotelkeepers throughout the Province was tried at the police court this morning. Cyrus Stockton, of the Metropolitan, was charged with profanation of the Sabbath. The specific charge was selling cigars on Sunday. The facts were admitted by the defendants, and Lawyer Haverson consumed fifty golden minutes in an argument justifying the defendant. His argument was that an hotelkeeper was not a merchant and consequently did not come under the sttute. He further stated that tobac-co was an incidental to the hotel busi-ness, and so no charge could be laid against Stockton.

Chief Williams contended that the hotelkeeper was a merchant, pure and simple, when he sold cigars for gain, as he was not compelled to do so by the license law or any other law. P. M. Love took the case under advisement and will give judgment a week from today.
