SWEDENBORG'S BODY

London, April 7 .- The body of Emmanuel Swedenborg, the famous mystic and writer, was exhumed in this city today, and started on its journey to Sweden for final burial in Swedish soil. The remains were taken up this morning from the vault in front of the communion table in the Swedish Church in Prince's Square, where they were deposited in 1772-136 years ago. Services were held over the body this afternoon, after which it was placed on a train for Dartmouth, where it will be embarked on the Swedish cruiser Fylgia for transit to Sweden. The Swedish Government formally requested the exhumation and surgains. The Unionists won 33 seats render of the body, and the British Government assented.

Hon. Mr. Fisher stated that in view of the repeated presentations by the Canadian Government to the British Government and the persistent actions of the British Parliament in readian cattle into the United Kingdom, the appointing of a delegation suggested by the resolution would, in his opinion, be both futile and undignified. In this connection the correspondence includes a letter sent to Hon. Mr. Fisher by the direction of Earl Carrington, president of the British board of agriculture, under date of July 8, 1907, which says in "The enormous losses which the British agriculturists have suffered during the last 30 years, mainly by reason of the increased pressure of colonial and foreign competition, make it more than ever necessary that every precaution should be taken against the introduction of diseases, consistent with the reasonable requirements of colonial producers and the interests of the consumer at home. The consequence of a recurrence of epidemics of diseases, such as have been experienced before, would be disastrous, and consumers, as well as producers. would be affected throughout the country "The Dominion Government will probably have gathered from the recent public utterances of members of his Majesty's Government, both in Parliament and elsewhere, that there is no prospect of their being able to propose any reversal of policy of their predecessors in this matter."
