NOTHING IN IT

ion. Mr. Aylesworth Denies Having Any Intention of Resigning.

Toronto, Nov. 7 .- "The newspapers always know a lot more about a man's affairs than he does himself. I have never heard of it. I have never thought f such a thing." This was the answer made today by Hon. A. B. Aylesworth when asked what truth there was in the report that last night at the King Edward. He is apparently in good health, save for his deafness, which makes conversation with him a real difficulty. "If you want to put anything in the paper about me," said Mr. Aylesworth, "say that there is nothing at all the matter with me but my ears."

WOULD AMEND ACT

Some Railwaymen Object to Working

of Lemieux Act.

Tronto, Nov. 7.-It was announced here today by Harvey Hall, agent for the organizations, that at the apamendment would be asked for exempting the railway employes from the clause in the act prohibiting strikes during the investigations under the act. This exemption would virtually leave the railway labor organizations under the terms of the railway labor disputes' settlement act. introduced by Sir William Mulock and passed in 1903. This was what the railway men asked for last session and they still want it. A bill giving effect to the wants of the railway men will be introduced at the approaching session, and a strong effort made to secure its passage
