Thirty-Five Thousand Workmen Are Out and Sympathetic Strike Likely.

Berlin, Aug. 16.-As a result of the fight between the German shipbuilders and their employees, all the shipyards of Germany except the government work, are now idle so far as new construction is concerfied. Naval construction assigned by the Government to private vards is at a standstill, and ship-owners are in many cases sending their ships to England for the necessary repairs.

The men demand an increase of ten per cent in wages, and a 55-hour week. The ship-builders maintain that these economic demands are a cloak to political purposes, and cannot
