AUSTRIAN WAR SHIPS DAMAGED BY THEIR CREWS

Vessels Surrendered to Allies Under Treaty Are Disabled.

CANNOT BE NAVIGATED

Czecho-Slovaks and Jugoslavs Are Blamed For Sabotage.

Geneva, Jan. 16.—Austrian war vessels which, under the terms of the peace treaty must be handed over to the Allies, have undergone a second "Scapa Flow," according to a telegram received here from Turin by way of London.

The dispatch states that the allied commission which arrived recently at Cattaro confirms first reports that the Austrian fleet had been seriously damaged.

The Austrians were said to have destroyed or removed the principal parts of the machinery of the ships rendered incapable of navigation, only the hulls remaining in good condition.

Reports, it is said, will require several months before the vessels can be made ready for sea. The fleet includes one battleship, three large cruisers, four torpedo cruisers, twelve torpedo boats, and some smaller craft. The Austrians are declared to have acknowledged the damage, but to have blamed the Czecho-Slovaks and the Jugoslavs. The ships eventually will be towed into Toulon and Marseilles for repairs.

German Actor Now Wants to Be "Goat" For Former Kaiser

Not For Wilhelm's Sake, He Says, But "German Honor."

Berlin, Jan. 17.—Ferdinand Bonn, at one time the most popular actor in Germany, and a special favorite of the former Emperor William, has offered to substitute himself for Count Hohenhausen and go to London under the name of "the former monarch."

Not so much for the sake of William as for German honor would I do this, Bonn declared.

The actor was recently hissed in various sections of Germany because he had taken part in the production of a play dealing with the rise and fall of the Hohenzollerns. Bonn believes he is the only man in Germany capable of carrying out such a delicate mission and satisfying the allied demand for the extradition of Count Hohenhausen.

His father, Mr. S. White, a naturalized Canadian citizen, was caught in the German net, and was taken to a prisoner of war camp. The father, a brother (S. White), the latter's wife and children, and a brother-in-law all died of starvation.

For, though well to do, the Germans had taken all the property and the family was left to starve. Shoes there were left to spare. Clothes could not be secured, and food was scarce.

Local Hebrews will bring a general appeal for funds to aid the stricken people of Poland, the Ukraine and West Ukraine.

DON'T WORRY!

With the city dade in harness, and the mayor right on the bit. Our new nineteen-twenty council all bid fair to make a hit.

They are tackling level crossings and the kiddies' playground park. And they're sworn to honest goodness that they'll ditch our old "Noah's Ark."

So what's the use of worrying; if mistakes they make a few. They are only human men folk, just the same as me or you. So instead of criticizing those who rule the city roost, Let's forget our personal feelings and go in to build and boost.

DEWART CHALLENGES PREMIER DRURY TO FIGHT FOR RIDING IN THE QUEEN CITY

Leader of Ontario Liberals Declares Drury Head of Government by Proxy.

UNDER U. F. O. DICTATION

Declares That Seatless Ministers Find Places or Quit.

TORONTO, Jan. 15.—H. Hartley Dewart, K.C., M.P.P., Liberal leader in Ontario, is after Premier E. C. Drury again. In a statement handed to the Canadian Press tonight, Mr. Dewart severely criticized the premier, who was unconstitutionally called to the premiership by the former lieutenant-governor, Sir John Hendrie.

Mr. Dewart asserted, and the Liberal leader concludes by offering Hon. Mr. Drury a contest for one of the Toronto seats, now held by a Liberal.

Since Mr. Drury finds so much difficulty in getting any of the U. F. O. members to resign his seat in order to enable him to contest it, Mr. Dewart says, "I am in a position to give him an opportunity to contest one of the Liberal seats in Toronto, if he desires to do so. He will then be able to test his strength against a Liberal in Toronto."

Violation of Precedent. Mr. Dewart finds fault because "the former Lieutenant-Governor, Hendrie, in violation of all constitutional precedent, on the advice of his constitutional advisers, decided to call upon the nominee of the United Farmers of Ontario as an agent, and declares that the premier 'lives and moves and breathes' and he demands that the premier, as chairman, be removed from the committee of which J. J. Morrison is chairman."

Further, Mr. Dewart declares that Mr. Drury is premier by proxy, and that the seating of the premier, Attorney-General W. E. Roney and Hon. Manning Macdonald, members of agriculture, "depends upon Mr. J. J. Morrison's committee."

Sixty-two days have passed since November 15, when the new government was sworn in. Mr. Dewart points out, and he demands that the premier, as chairman, be removed from the committee of which J. J. Morrison is chairman.
