TO LET ADELAIDE ST., near Oxford—Modern 6-room furnished house, vacant Oct. 1. Apply Box 75, Advertiser. APARTMENT, modern, heated, lower, with every convenience, possession Oct. 1st, $70, garage $5 if desired. 304 King St. Fair Week Visitors Want Rooms Will You Rent?

London is always an attractive place, where visitors can combine business with good amusements. That is why so many Fair Week visitors stay from two to four days. They plan to visit: 1 .- Western Fair, the new Manufacturers' Hall, the many exhibits from all parts of Canada—and see the splendid sports program. 2.—Springbank Park, that beautiful country resort where young and old can visit the Zoo, the Roller Coaster and other amusel ents.

3.—Port Stanley is never better than in September, when all who visit it return feeling full of "pep." 4. There are four Theatres, showing good pictures, fine vaudeville, and refined musical revues.

There will be many added Fair Week attractions. Don't come for a day and go away disappointed because you failed to make arrangements to stay longer. Where would you stay overnight? That problem is easily solved. In the Want Ads of The London Advertiser you will find many clean, comfortable rooms advertised in the "Rooms to Let." London housekeepers realize that the quickest and most economical way to rent their rooms is in the Want Ads-that is where everyone looks now-saves so much time and running about. Is your Ad in now? If not, 'phone 3670 today. There will be 200,000 people at the Fair. Many articles will be lost. Save anxiety by reporting your loss to The London Advertiser office on the Fair Grounds. Your Ad will be promptly 'phoned down town for insertion in the next edition of the paper.
