CITY NEWS.

The only way to beat a liar is to beat a hasty retainer.
Company manners always wear out if the company stays too long.
Miss Bertha Jenkins, of Chatham, is spending the holidays in this city.

Many a man's popularity is due to the fact that he doesn't think out loud.
A man's idea of an ideal wife is one who thinks she has an ideal husband.
It is easy to see the happiness you derive from poverty after you strike it rich.

Lots of things prevail on earth that have the slightest resemblance to the truth.
Mrs. Lucas, of Chicago, is spending the holidays with Mrs. Riddell, 89 Hamilton Road, city.
Mr. Clarence Defields, of the Central Fire Hall, Windsor, is on a visit to friends in this city.

Mr. James Robinson, of this city, is spending a week with his son, Mr. H. Robinson, at Orangeville.
Mrs. F. Henry, of this city, is home on a visit to her parents, Senator and Mrs. McMillan, of Alexandria.

Mrs. E. H. Fishleigh (nee Miss Minnie Dean) is spending New Year's at her parents' home, 649 William street.

Mr. Clarence Murray, of the Detroit News-Tribune business staff, is in the city for a few days, visiting his mother, Mrs. (Rev.) J. A. Murray.

The annual watch-night service will be held in the First Methodist church this evening, commencing at 10.30. The pastor, Rev. Mr. Bishop, will conduct the service.

Mr. R. Oke, of this city, was awarded 111 first, nine second and 78 special prizes on his exhibit of poultry, including silver cup for best exhibit at the Detroit Poultry Show last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Meredith, of Montreal, formerly of this city, leave early in January on a trip to the Mediterranean. They will be accompanied by Mrs. Meredith's sister, Miss Margaret Angus.

A handsome thing was done at Berlin the other evening, when J. W. Connor, B. A., for thirty-one years Principal of the Berlin High School, was presented with a purse of $1,000 by graduates of the school.

Tremendous crowds of people attended the opening of the fire sale at Graham Bros. yesterday. So great was the crush that it was found necessary at times to lock the doors in order that they might be better handled.

The friends of Mr. W. L. Flaherty, of Niagara Falls, formerly of this city, will regret to hear that he has suffered a slight stroke of paralysis, from which he has, however, partially recovered, and his condition is not considered serious.

They caught the little one punching the baby in the stomach. "What are you doing?" demanded her mother. "Jes' wanted to see if it worked the same way that my cryin' doll does," was the reply, as she gave the baby a jab that made it howl. "They're all alike, ain't they?"

At a recent meeting of the executive committee of the London and Middlesex Historical Society arrangements were made to have a lecture given in the City Hall on Jan. 16 next on "Our Debt to the United Empire Loyalists," by Sir John Bourne, clerk of the Canadian House of Commons, and honorary secretary of the Royal Society of Canada.

A happy event occurred a few days ago at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Shaw (Clerk of the Division Court), Dorchester, when their only daughter was given in marriage to Mr. Harry Dean, of Nissouri. The friends of the contracting parties witnessed the tying of the nuptial knot, beneath a canopy of white silken drapery, entwined with a horseshoe of holly and roses. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Veal, pastor of the Methodist Church, amid the strains of the wedding march, a contribution by Miss Lou Chittick, cousin of the bride. The bride carried a shower bouquet and was attired in a costume of pearl gray ladies' cloth, appliqued with white satin and accented with pearls. The bridesmaid, Miss M. J. Dea, sister of the groom, was handsomely attired in brown ladies' cloth with satin trimmings. Mr. Frank McCutcheon, of Thorndale, assisted the groom, while Miss Vera Shaw and Master G. Shaw attended the bride, the former bearing flowers and the latter a train. At the close of the reception and dainty repast, the happy couple, who were the recipients of many valuable presents, departed on a short visit to friends in New York before taking up their abode in Nissouri.
