right body blows. Sharkey let his left go for all it was worth on Jeff's chest, and the big fellow's frame was jarred from the blow. Jeffries next shot his left to the body and rushed to a clinch. Sharkey bored in and swung his left up to fiercely without a let-up, Sharkey having the better of the in-fighting. Jeffries sent his left to the body and Sharkey countered with left on mouth, cutting Jeffries' sore lip. This was Sharkey's round. ANOTHER FOR SHARKEY.
