MAIL ORDERS

We point out of town orders, which receive our personal attention. The length of time taking to fill orders is governed very largely by how busy we are in the department of our factory in which the particular goods are made. While we have exceptional facilities for promptly turning out goods, it is important to place orders as far ahead as possible. Orders are filled by us in the workshop in which they are received, and customers can always depend on our doing everything in reason to give prompt dispatch.

Minutes of July meeting confirmed.
The statement submitted by the Secretary Treasurer at Tuesday's session shows that on Dec. 31st there was to the credit of the municipality in the Royal Bank on contingent account a balance of $6486-88. And school fund account a balance of $1759.13 and on sinking fund debenture account a balance of $2698.35.

The council is occupied with routine work and passing accounts.
A resolution was moved and carried at Wednesday's session authorizing the public lands and building committee to erect a suitable wire fence around the council house square and to have the council room painted.

Mr. A. G. Adams, veteran councillor for Addington and warden of the county was appointed at Wednesday's session to represent Restigouche at the Union of Municipalities.

Councillors Arseneault, Bernard and Levesque were granted leave of absence for Thursday forenoon to attend the funeral of the late John Spude who was killed in the lumber woods on Monday.

At Wednesday's session the parish lists of officers were passed and will be published in the usual way.

DEATH OF MRS. WILLIAM NOBLE

Mary E. Noble, wife of William Noble of Glen Levit, passed to her eternal reward on Jan. 18th at the early age of forty years.

She was the mother of a large family, the youngest about three years old. She contracted measles along with the seven children and this was followed by double pneumonia to which her overworked system only too readily succumbed.
The baby is not expected to recover, so the home is a sad one.

She was the daughter of the late Hugh Craig of Glen Levit and is survived by two brothers, James in the States and George at Tide Head, also two sisters, Mrs. Gallie of Glencoe and Mrs. Arthur Thompson of Dawsonville.

Mrs. Noble will be much missed by others besides her family. She was kind and affable and a helper in the church to which she belonged and for every good cause she had a kind word. The funeral took place on Jan. 20th to the cemetery at Flat Lands and was very largely attended. Almost every home of Glen Levit and Dawsonville was represented and also others from Tide Head, Glencoe, Flatlands, Sellerville and Campbellton.

The funeral service was conducted by Rev. C. A. Hardy.

PRESENTATION IS MADE TO HON. CHARLES H. LABILLOIS AT DALHOUSIE

An Address and Purse Given by the Friends of the Late Member For Restigouche as a Reminder of Their Appreciation

On Tuesday evening a committee consisting of Mr. A. E. G. McKenzie, W. A. R. Cragg, manager of the Royal Bank, Dalhousie, Councillors, Alex. Levesque, Harvey C. Gillis and Ed. Bernard waited on Hon. C.
H. LaBillois, at his residence and in the name of his friends in the county and province, presented him with an address accompanied by a purse, as a testimonial to show their great appreciation of the good work that had been done by him during his thirty years of public life. The presentation was made by Mr. Mc-Kenzie who contested the county on

HON. C. H. LABILLOIS

Mr. LaBillois in reply said that in accepting the address and testimonial from the committee which represented his friends everywhere, he desired to thank them for their very kind expressions towards him for what efforts he has made for the best interests of the people.

He was grateful to those who had contributed so generously to the testimonial. He saw there the names of former colleagues who sat with him in the legislature. Some of them adorned the bench, others did credit to the province in the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, others had retired from public life. To them and to other in the province and country he would be for ever grateful.

He said that it would be fitting on an occasion like this to say a word about the future. Since his defeat in June, one of the members for Madawaska Co., without any solicitation whatever, had offered to resign the seat in his favor. It was also well known that Premier Flemming would not be adverse to Mr.
LaBillois occupying a seat opposite him in the Assembly, as their relation in parliament were always of a most friendly character. He felt, however, that after thirty long years of service, it was only fair to himself and just to his family that he would devote some time, at least, to business and social affairs and that he had made up his mind that he would not make any great effort to return to Fredericton. However, he said that his long experience in dealing with public affairs would not be lost as he intended devoing some little time to the study of problems for the benefit of the people of his native town in which he lived, for the advancement of the county which had for so long a time honored him with its confidence, and he could not forget the county of Bonaventure, where he had so many friends and where he had learnt to speak the French language after he had left Dalhousie at the age of nine on account of the illness and death of his parents.

After the speeches, refreshments were served and a most enjoyable time spent.

CRAZY MAN JUMPS FROM MOVING TRAIN

Fred Reid on Way to St. John Jumps Over Bridge at Mill-stream—Now at Hospital

On the arrival of the Ocean Limited on Monday morning some stir was caused here when it became known that a man had jumped from the train at Millstream.

It appears that the passenger, Fred Reid, aged about 30, an Englishman, who was travelling to St. John en route for England, suddenly took a crazy streak when the train was at Millstream and jumping from the train leaped over the railway bridge and made off over the ice.

The train was immediately pulled up and the crew assisted by others captured the man half way over the river. He was brought back to the train and Railway Detective Culligan at Campbellton was notified to meet the arrival of the Ocean Limited.
When the train pulled in to Campbellton officer Culligan procured blankets from the sleeping car and had the man removed to the Hotel Dieu, where he now lies.

It seems that Reid has been subject to fits of mental aberration, and on being asked why he jumped over the bridge said, "The people were bothering him." "What people?" asked the questioner. "The people of Montreal" he replied.

Reid seems to be in comfortable circumstances having a goodly sum of money with him, and an Oddfellows card showing he was in good standing.

Rome, Jan. 23.—The Bank of Italy believes that the winning lottery ticket first prize of 1,600,000 francs was lost on the Titanic last April with a batch of other tickets which were sent to the United States on that vessel. All efforts to trace the holder of the ticket have been fruitless.

It has been reported that the winning ticket was sold in Sicily but the bank has so far found no one to whom the claim should be paid.

THE CAMPBELLTON CURLERS ON TOUR

Three Rinks Play in Amherst And Truro—No Luck in Mc-Lellan Cup Competition

(Special to Graphic)

Three rinks of Campbellton curlers left on the Maritime, Tuesday morning to back up their challenge to Truro for the McLellan cup.
The rinks were: Hugh A. Carr, Max Mowat, J. A. O'Keefe, A. A.
Andrew, skip; C. Shirley, John T.
Reid, R. K. Shives, Thos. Wran, skip; J. Moores, Geo. F. Miles, John T. Mowat, H. G. Millican, skip.

On Tuesday evening a friendly game was played with Amherst, skip Andrew's rink opposing P. C.
Black, W. Knight, W. H. Tennant and C. S. Sutherland, skip. Tom Wran had as opponents, C. P. Carter, J. A. Crossman, F. A. Wilson and J. M. Fage, skip; while Happy had a hot rink against him in H. A.
Curry, Dr. O'Brien, N. C. Rogers and W. B. Calhoun, skip.

On account of the condition of the ice which was far from keen, only fourteen ends were played.
The game was keenly contested, the score at the eighth end standing: Andrew 6; Sutherland, 4; Wran, 9; Fage, 7; Millican, 8; Calhoun, 6.
The score at the end of the game stood—

Campbellton	Amherst
Thos. Wran, 16	J. M. Fage, 9
H. G. Millican, 12	W. B. Calhoun, 10
A. A. Andrew, 10	C. S. Sutherland, 9
38	34
Majority for Campbellton, 4 shots.

The Truro Game

Fresh from their victory over Amherst they arrived in Truro in good spirits, bent on redeeming themselves by wresting the McLellan Cup from their conquerors of last year. Although the rinks were not so strong as they would have been had the games been pulled off here, still it was thought everyone would give a good account of himself.

The rivals lined up as follows—

Campbellton	Truro
H. A. Carr	H. W. Yuill
M. Mowat	J. W. Blankensop
J. A. O'Keefe	J. Dow
A. A. Andrew, skip vs. W. H. Semple, skip
C. Shirley	S. W. McCulloch
J. T. Reid	J. K. Fraser
R. K. Shives	C. F. Cox
Thos. Wran, skip vs. L. W. Cox, skip
J. Moores	G. F. Wilson
G. F. Miles	G. Christie
J. T. Mowat	F. Dexter
H. G. Millican, skip vs. F. Matthews, skip Right off the bat Campbellton pulled ahead and at the finish of the third end were 8 ahead, the scores then standing, Andrew, 6; Semple, 10; Wran, 6; Cox, 2; Millican, 1; Matthews, 3; Total Campbellton, 13; Truro, 5.

From this point Truro came into the picture more, and at the 10th end both teams were "nip and tuck"

Wasted Opportunities.

Napoleon once said he didn't wait for opportunities, he made them. Having made them he took immediate advantage of every chance open. This kind Napoleon "King of the Castle" for many years.
Then, he too, joined the down and out club, when Blucher's opportunity came before Grouchy's at Waterloo. It was a question of opportunities then even as it is today.

"Does Opportunity Knock But Once?"

We believe we are justified in answering an emphatic "No" to that question.

Why?

Because of the thirty-one days full of the opportunities our January sale offers you. Opportunities of purchasing clothes that you can wear right now both seasonable and stylish garments at just about what they cost us.

Our January Sale

is a make room sale. New Spring Goods begin to arrive about the first of February and we must have space in which to store them.

You Want the Goods,

We want the space and the money. This creates the thirty-one days brim full of opportunities.

Seize These Opportunities!

Drop in and let us show you some of the values we are offering. Even if you don't buy, we'll get acquainted anyway, and that is always progress in the right direction.
