PEARL WHITE COMING IN A CLEVER STORY

Miss Pearl White, who as "serial queen" was long known in more theatres the world over than any other motion picture actress, will be at the Opera House next Wed. & Thursday in her new William Fox feature, "Beyond Price."

Miss White has done some fine work for William Fox since she abandoned serial work.

In "Beyond Price" she has a story that at times is as thrilling as any serial, though essentially a high-class comedy.

J. Searle Dawley directed "Beyond Price," for which Pauline Sloane supplied the story.

LATH MARKET GLUTTED.

The lath market which has been strong has taken a slump. Many mills in some sections of the province were cutting lumber into laths only. The extra production has glutted the market.

Answers Unexpected.

A well-known hostess was entertaining a distinguished Japanese visitor in the Matapedia Cemetery on Oct. 12. Without saying what lay in store for England at her country house.

her guest, she conducted him to her "Japanese garden." She expected to see a far-away look come into his tear-filled eyes as the prospect waited him back to his distant and beloved home.

Instead he beamed on her through his gold-rimmed spectacles, and, bowing with true Oriental politeness, exclaimed: "Beautiful! We have nothing like this in Japan."

SAID HER GRACE.

An English dutchess had been owing her milliner a long time. The money was soiled needed, and after the bill had been repeatedly ignored the milliner finally sent her little daughter to collect it.

"Be sure to say 'Your Grace' to the dutchess," said the anxious mother, and the child gravely promised to remember.

When, after long waiting, she was ushered into the presence of the dutchess, the little girl made a low curtsy, and then, folding her hands and closing her eyes, she said softly, "For what I am about to receive, may the Lord make me truly thankful."

"The quick-witted dutchess flushed as her eyes rested on the wistful child who so unconsciously had rebuked her, and without delay made out a check for the amount due the milliner.—Out-look.

ONE AT A TIME.

A man from the north of Scotland was on a holiday in Glasgow. On Sunday evening he was walking along Argyle street when he came upon a contingent of the Salvation Army, and a collection bag was thrust in front of his nose. He dropped a penny in it.

Turning up Queen street he encountered another contingent of the Salvation Army, and again a smiling lass held a collection bag in front of him. "Na, na!" he said. "I gied a penny tae a squad o' your folk round the corner just the noo." "Really?" said the lass. "That was very good of you. But then, you can't do a good thing too often. And besides, you know the Lord will repay you a hundredfold."

"Aveel!" said the cautious Scot, "we'll just wait till the first transaction's finished before we start the second."

OBITUARY.

Edmund Lodge.

Matapedia, Oct. 17, 1921.—We regret to have to record the death of Mr. Edmund Lodge of Runnymede, which took place on Oct. 16th, inst. Mr. Lodge who was in the eightieth year of his age, was a son of the late Mr. Henry Lodge, who immigrated from England when a young man and resided for some years in Dalhousie. He is survived by one son Robert, two daughters, Maud and Gertrude at home and one daughter, Mrs. Pearl Chaytor, in Vancouver, B. C. Also two sisters, Mrs. Daniel McEwen and Mary, in Victoria, B. C. His wife died three years ago and his eldest son, John was killed by accident about seven years ago.

Mr. Lodge was of a quiet and cheerful disposition, a true practical christian and greatly beloved by all who knew him. Although he had long since passed the milestone of life's allotted span, his passing away leaves a blank which cannot easily be filled.

The large number who accompanied his remains to their final resting place in the Matapedia Cemetery on Oct. 12 to pay their last tribute of respect to his memory, was ample evidence of his high esteem in which he was held in the community in which he had lived for so many years.

FINE HERE.

While all the district from Bathurst to Moncton enjoyed quite a snow storm yesterday, it was fine and bright here.
