THE MASONIC LOTTERY.

We are told the masonic lottery in London was not a masonic lottery at all. We members of the order chose to act in direct defiance of the expressed wishes of the grand lodge.

Whereas the practice of resorting to lotteries for the purpose of raising funds for benevolent and other purposes has been attempted in Canada, and whereas lotteries have been declared illegal and demoralizing in their tendencies.

The resolution is certainly clear and explicit, and good masses should there and then have dropped the scheme, or at least, not have published it to the world as a masonic gift enterprise and appropriated the gains therefrom for the relief of a masonic building from debt.

HOW SENATORS ARE MADE. Rev. Father L. Brennan of St. Michael's college, Toronto, has lately issued a circular to the catholic clergy of this diocese and other dioceses, asking them to send special urgent letters to Sir John Macdonald, requesting him to appoint Remondus Cliney, described in the directory as a justice of the peace, to the senatorship vacated by Governor Atkins of Manitoba.

THE UNIVERSITY OF TRINITY COLLEGE in this city has altered its statutes so that non-graduate students in priests order may on passing certain examinations obtain the degree of bachelor of divinity. Rouses at Notre, the college paper, rightly takes objection to the change as tending to cheapen the degree.

AB A. of Trinity university is greatly agitated over the fact that the M. A. hood of that institution is one of them alike. Instead of silk velvet for lining, cotton velvet is used; instead of "rich crimson" or "poor burgundy or pale cardinal" is employed.

ENGLAND AND EGYPT. The British government has now arrived at a point in the Egyptian game when it seems to be safe and proper to show its hand. English interference is based, according to recent authentic ministerial declarations, first upon the necessity of protecting the highway to India and the investments of British subjects in Egyptian enterprises; secondly, upon the necessity of giving a proof of Great Britain's power and influence to the Mohammedan populations that skirt the isthmian region between Asia and Africa; and lastly, in order to anticipate any other European power in undertaking the solution of the Egyptian riddle.

IT IS ESTIMATED that there are 200,000 vagabonds and beggars in the German empire, including thieves, pickpockets and other swindlers, and the authorities estimate the annual losses to honest people by their operations at the enormous sum of $25,000,000. Many of these evil-doers are brought before the magistrates from time to time, but both judges and juries are accused of administering too mildly over the mild laws of Germany against vagabondage.

MR. FRONTO, county crown attorney, is stated to have the names of a hundred or more buyers and sellers of tickets in the recent masonic lottery. He, however, finds his hands tied from the fact that the parties put in the witness box would at once decline to answer any questions on the ground the keys of the Mediterranean by holding Gibraltar at one end and the Suez canal at the other, in the end Egypt may become, like ourselves, an English colony.

THE LOUISIANA STATE Lottery has had a hard struggle for existence, but money has hitherto been successful in thwarting the efforts of its enemies. One more attempt is to be made to strike a vital blow at this abominable institution, and it will be interesting, in view of the present state of things in Canada, to watch the result.

IT WAS ABOUT time that one Englishman was drawing pay as an officer of the German army in return for the many Germans who make a good thing out of honorary positions in the British service. It is, therefore, interesting to note that the Emperor William is said to be specially gratified at the acceptance by the Prince of Wales of the colonelcy of Blucher's Hussars.

Mrs. Lanoy and "Freddie" are playing an engagement at Cincinnati. Freddie at the moment is said to be even a greater attraction than the Lily herself. He has been offered a valuable engagement by an enterprising theatrical manager.

MR. DAVID WALTON, who keeps a large livery stable on N. Twelfth street, Philadelphia, has a "snake oil" with happiest results on a valuable horse, which sprained itself by slipping.

THE LIVES of great men all remind us, etc. Gambetta's grandfather was an Italian chimney sweep. About a hundred years ago, so runs the legend, a little fellow of the name of Gambetta, belonging to a family that still exists and sweeps chimneys at Intrugna, went as far south as Genoa, and there remained.
