An Incident of the Turf.

Hendricks, Stapleton and Collins pitched alternately for the Clippers. The Clippers made 8 base hits and 4 errors, and the Lindsays 7 base hits and 29 errors. One of the best stories of consummate cheek and ready resource we have ever heard reaches us from Saratoga. Last Friday it will be remembered W. E. Owens'b. m. Minnie Meteor ran second in a mile selling race to W. Jennings' br. f. Carrie Stewart, 4 yrs., by Virgil—Laxity. Carrie Stewart, 4 yrs., by Virgil—Laxity.
Owens wanted to get even with Jennings for beating him and so thought he would run his mare up over the entered price of $400. He bid up to $520, thinking Jen nings would certainly go to $550 at least. But Owens calculations were artray, for the auctioneer knocked the mare down to his nod. Now, Mr. Billy was in a quantary, and the question was was in a quandary, and the question was where should he get the money, but get it he must or he permanently ruled off. While he was ruminating on the situation he spied Robert Bond not afar off. Hailing him, he said, "I am just going into the weighing room to see Mr. Wheatly, the secretary. Come along." Jack Forbes was with Owens, and the three went in. Owens went directly up to Mr. Wheatly, taking the unsuspecting Mr. Bond by the arm, and with the utmost nonchalance said "Mr. Wheatly, this is Mr. Robert Bond, the gentleman for whom I chalance said "Mr. Wheatly, this is Mr. Robert Bond, the gentleman for whom I just bought the mare." Mr. Bond took the affair for a joke, thinking Forbes or Owens had purchased Carrie Stewart, but didn't want to be known in the transaction. He, therefore, said nothing, but walked away with the others. Later on the same day Mr. Bond received a note from Mr. Wheatly, reminding him that he had bought the horse and asking him to settle. He was almost paralyzed with surprise bought the horse and asking him to settle. He was almost paralyzed with surprise and went to Owens for an explanation. That gentleman told him the situation and explained the penalty for non-compliance with the request of the note, Mr. Bond recognized the fact that by not making a demial to Mr. Wheatly at the time of the introduction he had fatally committed himself. There was nothing for it then but to pay, and borrowing the money from but to pay, and borrowing the money from some Toronto friends he forwarded the $520 to Mr. Wheatly and Owens added the mare to his string. But you should have seen the look on the handsome open countenance of the genial Bob when Mr. Owens asked him, as he was leaving the Springs, for some money to pay for the keep of the mare.

Bad news comes of the Canadian horses at Saratoga, nearly all of whom are reported ailing. Brait, of so much promise, is sick; Springfield, Disturbance, Maudamus and George L. are lame; Minnie Meteor has struck herself, but not seriously, and Driftwood has a knee.

Eight to one each has been taken against Robert Peck's ch. c. The Bard, by Petrarch - Magdalen, R. C. Vyner's b. c. Minting, by Lord Lyon - Mint Sauce, and Mr. Childwick's ch. c. Saraband by Muncaster - Highland Fling for the Darby of caster—Highland Fling, for the Derby of 1886. In each case the bet was £400 to £50. W. E. Owens' 6-year old Mandamus and John Forbes' 5-year-old George L. are entered for the Morrissey handicap to be run at Saratoga on Aug. 25, the former to carry 100 lbs. and the latter 97 lbs. Ed. Corrigan's pair, Modesty, 4 yrs., and Freeland, 6 yrs., carry the top weight, 193 lbs. each.

The Racing Calendar of Aug. 6 c The Racing Calendar of Aug. 5 contains the entries for the Cesarewitch and Cam bridgeshire handicaps. The former has 100 and the latter '116 entries. The Americans Eole and Blue Grass are only in the Cesarewitch. Mr. Hammond's St. Gatien is in both races, as in fact are the best of all the English horses in training. London baseball team, which, if permitted to develop, bodes no good to the success of the nine. The principal objection urged is against Pelouze's appointment as financial manager, which the directors resolved upon a few days ago. Another reason assigned by two or three of the local players is that more attention is bestowed by the directors upon Campau than there ought to be. The players are paid good salaries for ball tossing, and if they choose to conduct themselves in a manner which will prove detrimental to the club's interests the sooner they are told so the better. It is not necessary that the players, the captain included, should be consulted regarding the intentions of the managers. At Goodwood on July 31, 5 to 1 only was offered against R. C. Vyner's bay colt Minting, by Lord Lyon,out of Mint Sauce, for next year's Derby. He has started twice, winning the Scaton-Delaval Stakes at Newcastle and the Prince of Wales Stakes at Goodwood.

The place of the keeper of the roya tennis court, rendered vacant through the death of the Right Hon. W. Beresford, the last holder of the sinecure, which is worth $6000 a year. For this pittance the governor is expected to visit the court once a year and see that it still exists. A somewhat similar sincoure is the governor-ship of Duck Pond island, a piece of ground about as large as the space covered by Shafteebury hall, created by the Merry Shaftesbury hall, oreated by Monarch. The salary is $7500.

Judging from the remarks of a person connected with the Toronto baseball club in the Rossin house yesterday noon to the effect that the reporter of The World was a d— f—, he scarcely appreciates the outspoken language of this paper. But it is hard to understand why he should be so much concerned, considering that but a little time ago he d— the newspapers, said they could do neither harm nor good, and when told of any statements in the press exclaimed, "Mere newspaper talk!" "Tis strange how defiant people are until they're hit. Conway was batted hard at first, by the Detroits, but got into good shape finally. The Buffalos found Baldwin a good deal of a puzzle, but opportune hits and rank errors by the Detroits enabled them to pile up six runs in three innings and win the game. At Providence the home club played in regular schoolboy style, and gave Boston an easy victory. At New York, by heavy batting the home club won another game from Philadelphia. At Chicago against St. Louis the heavy hitters of the Chicago nine got to work in the fourth inning and commenced batting steadily. They were not retired until seven runs were scored.

spectators were present this afternoon at the London-Primrose game in Dundurn. Young was in the box for the Prims, and with the assistance of Garstan he literally Saye the game away. Brigham, as he is Popularly styled, is one of the easiest sattled men of any repute in the league. He frequently gets two strikes called off the hatter, and then almost invariably throws six balls away off from the plate. The Londons know this and after two strikes are called down goes the club, for they know that Brigham can't throw the third and they generally wait for the umpire to call six balls. If Brigham could keep up courage he would make an excellent pitcher six balls. If Brigham could keep up courage he would make an excellent pitcher but in his present state he is a positive failure. Two new players made their debut with the Prims to-day, McAuliffe and Garston. The latter attired in a suit that had seen much service, fooked as he went to the field as though he would make a good hall player, but during the first four good ball player, but during the first four innings his exhibition was so utterly bad that the captain removed him to right field, where he would have but little work field, where he would have but little work to do, Barnfather taking his place at second. Taken as a whole the Primrose team to day was; the weakest that they have played in Dundurn this season. Bierbauer behaved very well behind the bat, checking the course of many a wild throw from Young, thus saving that individual from doubling his already large number of errors. The interest in the game was very slight, the spectators being very sparing in their applause. All through the game the Forest city boys had things preity much their boys had things preity much their

The Toronto Baseball Club. A meeting of the directors of the Toronto Baseball club was held on Tuesday nights A good deal of discussion took place on the recent defeats and the supposed causes thereof. Only one of the directors really said what everybody else has been saying, and he was outvoted by the silent ones-However all agreed that something had to be done if baseball was to realize it promised prosperity. Everybody seemed to allow that mistakes had been made, but exactly how to remedy them mobody seemed to know. The World wa not present, but it will mildly suggest the club and the directors thereof the points that want strengthening. No second base, as some seemed to think, fo that position is played most efficiently, a first base recently was by the same man but third base, short stop and the plate.
