The first romance writer of the age. The splendid productions of this great author have intacto been almost inaccessible to those who reside in small towns and in the country. In this paper they will obtain his works, for about one tenth of the price demanded for them by the booksellers, Another feature of the Notion will be the publication of ORIGINAL DISCOURSES. By the most eminent divines. Among those who have hitherto contributed to this department of the Notion, may be mentioned. Rev. John Pierpont Rev. S. K. Lothrop, Rev. E. H. Chapit, and others Key, S. K. Lottrop, Rev. E. H. Chaple, and others. The most important new romances published in England will be republished in the Netion immediately after their reception in this country. Here-tofter the works of Dickens, Marryat Cockton, and Ainsteorth, printed in this gaz-tte, would have cost four times as much as the entire subscription of the peper, if purchased separately at the book stores. The Boston Notion will continue to be as rich in this department as in previous years.

COSTLY WOOD ENGRVINGS. Imported from Europe, or designed by Johnston & other eminent artisis expressly for the work, will continue to illustrate and embellish its pages. As a gazette of literary, dramatic, commercial, political and general INTELLIGENCE, The Notion will be inferior to no periodical now or ever published in America. The Folio edition, after the ninth day of October, will contain four pages of ten columns each.

THE QUARTO EDITION.

THE QUARTO EDITION.

Of which the first number will be published on the 9th of October, will be sold on the same terms as the folio edition. It will be printed on a very large sheet, of the finest quality, and each number will embrace sixtean pages, of five columns each. The quarto edition will contain every article which appears in the folio edition for the same week, and at it he end of each year from its commencement will constitute a splendid quarto volume of Eight Handred and Thirty-tae Pages, with an index and an elegant tille page. Certainly so large a work, embracing an equal amount and variety of matter, of so great excellence, was never yet issued for so small a price as Three Dollars. The Quarto will not embrace the novels now in course of publication in the Folio, but will contain all the new works before alluded to.

CONDITIONS.

The Price of the Folio Edition will remain as

The Price of the Folio Edition will remain as now. Subscribers to that edition will find be allow de to transfer existing subscriptions to the new form as such a course would be productive of much con-GEO. F. CAMPBELL, Persons calling for any of the above will please say advertised.
