WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 30TH, 1896. -WHY do not some of our citizens con

tinne the move that was begun some time ago to have our town incorporated? A spasmodic effort was made about a year ago and before anything definite was accomplished the mat-ter was allowed to drop. Nearly every citizen in the town is in favor of this step, and it only requires a little push on the part of some of our people to bring the question up properly before the ratepayers and have a vote taken. It is unreasonable that we While On B visit to realizatives want to be able to turn round and say and say with exultation, "I told you so," hence they oppose its inception very vigorously. But this is not the proper spirit for wideawake business men to exhibit towards any enterprise which is so commendable to the enterprise which is so commendable to the citizens of other towns that it is almost uni-versally adopted. But the tendency of such opposition is to make the town where these citizens dwell the last or one of the last to adopt progressive measures. If all our peo-ple were afraid of taxation we never could enjoy the inestimable boons of our water and electric light systems, but would remain a town of yesterday. Although the cry of expense is seemingly the only objection to incorporation, it by no means follows that because some people say it means higher taxation that that will be the inevitable re-sult; but on the contrary the history of in-corporation in the town of Annapolis is that there is no increase in the taxes, but a large increase in the satisfaction over the way the town business is handled. But there is as sufficient reason for incorporation which warrants an increase in taxation if we have due regard for our peace and safety at night. of the "dark ages" larking round our streets at night, sometimes civil, sometimes making it unpleasant, often impossible for females to pass. Such things should not be, and it is well worth while becoming incorporated to protect ourselves against these lawless fel-lows who have no respect for anyone whom-soever. If it will cost a little more to pro-tect ourselves against this depravity let us cheerfully pay the bills and remove this re-proach from our town. --THE International Exhibition now being held in St. John is being remarkably well patronized and is meeting with that degree of success which such undertakings deserve. Mr. Byron A. This certainly is a record that Mr. Chealey and Annapolis county may both feel gratified with and should stimulate other farmers to go and do likewise. The judge of the fruit is D. H. expressions of sorrow were heard on all sides, as the genial manner of the deceased had won for him many warm friends. The remains were taken in charge by Undertaker Reed, and on Tuesday were forwarded to Boston via Yarmouth, accom-panied by the broken-hearted mother and her brother, Mr. John Murdoch. The deceased gentleman was about 57 years of age, and his untimely death was undoubtedly caused by heart disease.

Obituary.

-The report of the secretary of the Bap-tist conference for Annapolis county shows that Clementsvale leads off sgain with larg-ent number enrolled, there being 185. Clar-ence with the largest attendance, the most church members and the largest number who have connected themselves with the church, the number being 54.

RECEIVED A BRONZE MEDAL.—Mr. James S. Hawkesworth, our respected townsman, manager of the Yarmouth Creamery, has received a bronze medal and diploma for an exhibit of cheese at the World's Fair, held in Chicago in 1893. The cheese was made in the Mabou (C. B.) Creamery, of which Mr. Hawkesworth was manager that year.

--Messrs. Godfrey Smith, miner; Walter H. Prest, miner; J. Kenneth Lawson, mer-chant; Dugald Stewart, physician; all of Bridgewater, Lunenburg, Co., and Alexan-der H. MacLean, barrister, of Lunenburg, are applying for incorporation as the Block House Gold Mining Co., Ltd., for the pur-pose of carrying on a general mining business.

-Mr. Colin Harris has leased the ex-press business in connection with the Bear River hotel for a year. This is not a new departure for Mr. H. as a few years ago he was engaged in the livery and express busi-ness, and his courteous and obliging dispo-sition won for him many friends. Mr. G. M. Harris, the late proprietor, goes to Bos-ton.

ton. —The directors of the Bridgetown Driving Park have decided to hold their fall meeting on Thursday, Oct. 15th, with a farmer's race and a 2.45 trot and pace, for particulars and conditions of which see their adv. in this issue. In addition to these classes there will be one or two sweep stakes and some bloycle races, full particulars of which will appear later.

RICHARD PRAT.

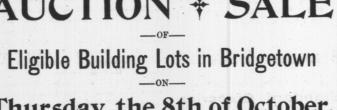

-Mesers. Curry Bros. & Bent have con-tracted with Editor Woodworth, of the Berwick Register, for the immediate con-struction of a new building, to be used as a struction of a new building, to be used as a printing office, in place of the one destroyed by fire a few days ago. The new structure will be 20x50 feet, two storeys, and con-veniently arranged. The enterprise exhibi-ted by Brother Woodworth since his loss by fire has been most commendable, and he is entitled to the hearty support of the resi-dents of the county and the citizens of Ber-wick in particular.

During the offertory at the evening service, Mrs. Wm. Campbell, of Ottawa, rendered a solo entitled "O Rest in the Lord," from the oratorio, Eiljah, in a pleasing and effective manner. Mr. Sim-mons, during his short visit in town as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Beckwith, has made many friends, all of whom will extend a cordial welcome should he again favor our town with a call.

town with a call. -A very neat circular of the St. John Business college and shorthand institute, S. Kerr & Son, proprietors, has reached this office. The character of this important in-stitution is so well and favorably known that no word of ours is necessary to intro-duce it to the public. The present standing of the college is higher than ever before; the constant aim of the proprietors appears to be, not to be satisfied with a mere maintenance of its present standing, but to be constantly taking higher ground in that direction. Graduates from the institution are found fill-ing important and lucrative business posi-tions in all quarters of the globe. -That the mat season has been one of the tions in all quarters of the globe. --That the past season has been one of the most prolific ever experienced in this pro-vince is not anly evidenced by the tremendous yield of the garden, field and orchard, but also by the wonderful growth of many varie ties of trees and vegetables. For an illus-tration our sanctum has been presented with a stalk of corn, containing well-developed ears, grown on the farm of Mr. Arthur Mar-shall, Clarence, which measures fifteen feet in length. Mr. Giltord Covert, of Paradise, brings to our notice the limb of a plum tree which has grown eight feet long since the spring season opened, while Mr. H. N. Ges-ner, of Belleisle, calls our attention to an ap-ple tree, of the Gravenstein variety, which yielded the enormous quantity of twenty five bls. of marketable fruit.
