

the Indians as well as the Indians. I shall be very happy to give any information in my power which may be of any use. There are many gentlemen in the Territory who would be able to give you varied interesting and accurate information, and thinking it possible that their names may not be known to you, I take the liberty of giving you a list which you will find enclosed.

The subject which you have undertaken to investigate is most extended and I believe that it will be a reproach to the literary men of Canada and Canadians generally if the question be not thoroughly exhausted and the results accurately recorded.

You have my hearty sympathy.
