

way. Her voice is ever pleading with her children that they may have that love which will say, "Grace be with all them that love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity."

Reviving Paganism

Nowhere does the reviving paganism of our day speak more distinctly than in the cry that the child belongs to the State, and that it is the duty of the State to take its education to itself.

The cry is false, it were fatal to give in to it, the child belongs to the parent, belongs to God.

This cry teaches us, as nothing else can, the supreme importance of Christian Education. If we train up our children in holy living and pure doctrine, we train them to be soldiers of God in the coming conflict against the powers of evil.

If we train them up in indifference to religion and Christian doctrine, they will either be at once renegades from the faith, or far too weak and faint hearted in their devotion to the Church to range themselves courageously amongst her champions in her terrible battle against the last apostasy.

Good Friday.

This is the world's greatest day of self humiliation; of weeping, fasting, and mourning. For we belong to the guilty race that wrought the crime committed on this day, we have part in the universal shame.

Humanity on this day stained itself with a great crime, and we belong to Humanity.

Am I a stone and not a sheep,
That I can stand, O Christ, beneath Thy Cross.
To number drop by drop Thy blood's slow loss,
And yet not weep?

Not so the women loved
Who with exceeding grief lamented Thee;
Not so fallen Peter, weeping bitterly;
Not so the thief was moved.

Not so the sun and moon,
Which hid their faces in a starless sky,
A horror of great darkness at broad noon
I, only I.

Yet give not o'er,
Hut seek Thy sheep, true Shepherd of the flock.
Greater than Moses, turn and look once more,
And smite a rock.
