

FREDELICTON. ACKNOWLEDGMENT. The following note has been received by the Treasurer of the D. C. S., from the Secretary S. P. G., acknowledging remittance from this Diocese of £132 7s 4d sterling:—

JANUARY 27th, 1874. My Dear Sir, - I am desired to offer, through you, the cordial thanks of the Society to the clergy of the Diocese and their congregations, whose liberal gifts you have forwarded. It is most gratifying to the Society to see how widely its sympathy with our great work prevails in the diocese. The large sum is to us a sign of the deep feeling which we trust, has been stirred in many hearts by the Day of Intercession for missions.

Believe me, dear sir, Yours very truly, W. T. BURLOCK.

FAIRVILLE CHURCH MISSION.

The initiatory step towards the establishment of this Mission was taken by calling a meeting of the people interested in its formation, at the Railway Station in Fairville. The meeting was held on 30th October, and attended by upwards of forty residents of Fairville and vicinity, Thomas L. Earle, Esq., being chairman. It was then and there after full discussion decided to undertake the erection of a Sunday School house, to be used temporarily as a church as soon as a site whereon to place it could be procured, and a committee, consisting of Messrs. T. E. Dowling, W. A. Quinton and John Raynes were appointed to procure plans, and estimates of the proposed building. A second meeting was held on the 11th of November when the Committee submitted plans, which were approved of, and upwards of $300.00 were subscribed by those present towards the cost of the building. A site having been procured through the liberality of the City Corporation at St. John, the Committee entered into contract with Messrs. Lake and Spence, of Fairville, for the erection of the building for the sum of $900.00. The dimensions are, length 50 ft., width 20 ft., with 12 ft. total height 80 ft. The contractors having proceeded energetically with their work, the building is now so far advanced as to leave no doubt of its being opened for service as proposed at Easter.

As soon as the arrangements for the School house were so far advanced, as to render its completion within a definite time reasonably certain, a Sunday School was begun in the Railway Station. Opened on the 14th December almost the shortest day in the year, when the afternoon (the time the School is held) so early grows dark, the attendance was not at first very large, but has steadily increased until now there are on the roll 85 children and 11 teachers. Of these 85 children about 70 were present last Sunday, and indeed the number absent has been so far, very small considering the continuance of severity of the winter, and the distance many of the children have to come.

The whole movement has been under the direction of the Rev. T. E. Dowling, Rector of St. George's Carleton, to whom his Lordship the Bishop has issued letters of licence for Fairville, Spurr's Cove, Mosquito Cove, and Sutton, these being the districts comprised within the Mission.

Many kind friends in St. John, Fredrickton, &c. have by their contributions aided in forwarding this good work, the subscription towards which now exceeds $900.00 of the $1300.00 which will be absolutely necessary to complete the arrangements at present contemplated. As the contributions of the people themselves have been, considering their circumstances and the additional calls made, and to be made on them for other essential expenses of the Mission, all that could be expected, it is hoped that more still will respond to the call for help made on behalf of those who have proved themselves so earnest and willing to the utmost of their power. - St. John Evening Globe, Feb. 11 1874.

Special Notices.

General Debility. James H. Johnston, M.D., Montreal, wrote in August, 1871, as follows: "I afford the greatest pleasure to bear testimony to the benefit received from using Fowler's Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites. I found it a nervous tonic of great power and efficacy, curing me in a short time from general debility and nervousness, and became robust and vigorous under its influence, and gained considerably in weight within."

Children often look pale and sick from no other cause than having worms in the stomach. The Only Perfect Hair Brush.

The qualities of a Hair Brush are its capability of cleaning the hair, and imparting a gloss to it, and its softness with the least possible labour, and without collecting the particles of dust, which it has removed; and also without injuring or irritating the skin of the head, which is well known as the originating cause of dandruff, and in many cases of premature baldness. But few Hair Brushes among the many hitherto introduced to the public possess any of these desiderata, and most of them, by improper construction, produce the very opposite result, and are the greatest injury to the hair. The only perfect Hair Brush is the PATENT TELEGRAPHION, which is a perfect satisfaction, therefore, in presenting to notice their new invention, assured that an examination of its structure will convince the most skeptical that it possesses all the properties requisite in such an article, and that it is entirely free from those glaring inconveniences and defects.

The inventor has just received a small lot of the above Hair Brushes, together with a large lot of JOHN GOSNELL & CO'S Royal Patent Hair Brushes, which are warranted to remove every particle of dandruff, clean, beautify and give the hair a rich, glossy appearance, not to be obtained by the use of any other.

These colorated Hair Brushes, with the least possible pressure create a quick circulation of the fluids, thereby promoting the growth and beauty of the hair. Sold with Leather Cases, each containing one pair superior Hair Brushes without handles. Face Powder Brushes. Infant and Children's Hair Brushes, in wood, bone and ivory - just the thing for a baby. Shaving Brushes, in Badger and Pig's Hair. Nail Brushes, in great variety, and without handles. Tooth Brushes - These tooth brushes have been made expressly for the subscriber, by J. Gosnell & Co., London, and will supply a want, long experienced, viz., a really good Tooth Brush at a moderate rate.
