Obituaries.

KING.—Bro. Wm. King died on May 9th at his home, Lot 32, Con. 7, Erin. When four years of age he came to Canada with his parents from Co. Kent, England, his birth-place, and five years later they settled in East Garafraxa, then a wilderness. About forty years ago Bro. King bought and settled on the farm where he died. About 33 years ago, at Erin Center, he heard the ancient gospel as preached by the Disciples of Christ, and at once became obedient to the faith. He had been raised in the English church. He followed his obedience by a faithful, Christian life till the end, and died in the hope of the glory of God after having passed through a long season of poor health.

Two sisters and one brother have preceded him across the dark valley; also two daughters and one son. A faithful and sorrowing wife and two sons and one daughter mourn the loss of a kind and indulgent husband and father. Four brothers and two sisters survive him, to whom he was always much attached. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."

Hillsburg, Ont. R. W. B.

WATSON.—Mrs Jos. Watson died on Thursday, May 18, at her home, Erin Township, at the age of 53 years and 4 months. Her parents, Bro. and Sister Syrat, moved with her to East Garafraxa 52 years ago, coming from Waterloo Co, where she was born. Thirty years ago she became the wife of Bro. Jos. Watson, Bro. Jas. Kilgour officiating, both having previously become members of the Church of Christ. Sister Watson, at first a member of the Erin Center Church, became one of the charter members of the Marsville church when that was organized, and of which she and her husband, who became a Christian among the first at Marsville, have remained consistent and God-fearing members ever since. Her quiet life, patience through much poor health, and loving, Christian example, will live in the memory of her family, friends and neighbors.

Four children, Joseph, of Elora; Mrs. Hays, of East Garafraxa, and William and Emily at home, all Disciples, are left behind to mourn with their father the loss of their dear mother. She was half sister to Bro. S. Woolner and Sister Wm. King, and Mrs. Gear, of Grand Valley; and sister to Mrs. Jno. King, of Grand Valley. How happy and peaceful the death of the Christian!
