Whatever Catholics may say or do in regard to our Blessed Lady, it is nothing more than a simple giving of reality to belief in her motherhood: nor is it easy to see on what principle bars or limits can be put to stop the flow of those feelings toward her which this view necessarily sets in motion.—Wiseman.

"The Good Men of St. Martin" was a charitable organization founded in the 15th century by St. Antonino, Archbishop of Florence. There were twelve men in the band, and their mission was to aid the unfortunate poor who would not beg. The order still exists, and has its headquarters at the little Church of San Martino.
