

Strangers and new comers feel at home with us.

Special Notes.

Rev. J. Hugh Jenner, Pastor of the North Baptist Church, preaches to-day. We extend hearty and cordial welcome.

MISSIONARY MEETING.—The W. M. A. Society held a very interesting Missionary Meeting on Wednesday evening last. A report of Convention proceedings was read by our delegate, Miss Ada Smith. Mrs. I. C. Archibald gave valuable information concerning our Mission field and work, and introduced the importance of maintaining "the Good Samaritan Hospital, Chicacole, Madras, Presidency India."

W. M. A. Society calls attention to the envelopes in the pews. Place your offering for 1st quarter now due, and put on the plate to-day.

DEATH.—We are again mourning the loss of an old standard-bearer. Bro. David Thompson has gone to his reward. He united with the North Church by letter from the First Hammond's Plains Baptist Church, Feb. 10, 1860, and in March, 1865, was elected Deacon, which office he held for a number of years. He was a Trustee of the Church and Chairman of the Building Committee in 1866, and was an honored member of the present Repair Committee, and during the past year of his life was actively engaged and deeply interested in the Church and its welfare. He was a constant attendant upon the means of grace, and was ever ready when duty called to lend a hand. He has gone from us—who will fill up the rank?
