WHAT IS CATARRH?

Catarrh is a mucopurulent discharge caused by the presence and development of the vegetable parasite ameba in the internal lining membrane of the nose. This parasite is only developed under favourable circumstances, and these are:--Morbid state of the blood, as the blighted corpuscle of tubercle, the germ poison of syphilis, mercury, toxomax, from the retention of the effete matter of the skin, suppressed perspiration, badly ventilated sleeping apartments, and other poisons that are germinated in the blood. These poisons keep the internal lining membrane of the nose in a constant state of irritation, ever ready for the deposit of the seeds of these germs, which spread up the nostrils and down the fauces, or back of the throat, causing ulceration of the throat; up the eustachian tubes, causing deafness; burrowing in the vocal cords, causing hoarseness; usurping the proper structure of the bronchial tubes, ending in pulmonary consumption and death. Many attempts have been made to discover a cure for this distressing disease by the use of inhalants and other ingenious devices, but none of these treatments can do a particle of good until the parasites are either destroyed or removed from the mucous tissue. Some time since a well-known physician of forty years' standing, after much experimenting, succeeded in discovering the necessary combination of ingredients which never fail in absolutely and permanently eradicating this horrible disease, whether standing for one year or forty years. Those who may be suffering from the above disease, should, with out delay, communicate with the business managers--Toronto Mail. Messrs. A. H. DIXON & SON 305 King St. West, Toronto, Canada. Scientific and Useful.

To remove mildew, soak in buttermilk and, pread on grass in the sun. To prevent flat irons from scorching, wipe them on a cloth wet with coal oil. To clean furniture that is not varnished, rub with a cloth wet with kerosene. POWDERED rice sprinkled upon lint and applied to fresh wounds will stop bleeding. SURE CURE FOR RHEUMATISM.--If the system is properly cleaned by some medicine that acts upon the bowels, kidneys and skin, such as Burdock Blood Bitters, and the sufferer will use Haggard's Yellow Oil according to directions, there are few cases of rheumatism, however bad, but will yield promptly to the treatment. To brighten or clean silver or nickel plated ware, rub with a woollen cloth and flour. CEILINGS that have been smoked by an oil lamp should be washed off by soda and water. THERE is nothing better than cold water, applied several times daily, for preserving, strengthening and cooling the eyes. WILL TAKE OATH TO THE FACT.--Edward Cousins, of Ranson, declares he was at one time nearly dead from the effects of a terrible cold and cough. He tried many remedies, but Haggard's Yellow Balsam was what cured him. He speaks in highest praise of it in other cases, and adds that he is willing to take oath to his statements. THE CHILDREN'S BEDS.--All children should, when practicable, sleep in separate cots, with light but warm clothing, and care must be taken that they go to sleep happily and peacefully, without worry, grief, or fear; and that on awaking they rise immediately and are quickly dressed. FISH FRITTERS.--Take any kind of cooked fresh fish and remove all the bones, and chop it finely with half the quantity of bread crumbs. Add half the quantity of cold, mashed potatoes. Mix into balls, after seasoning well with salt and pepper, with a little cream or milk, and one egg well beaten. Fry the fritters in boiling hot lard, and serve on a hot platter, garnished with water-cresses or parsley. CHOCOLATE CREAM DROPS.--Mix one-half a cup of cream with two of white sugar. Boil and stir full five minutes. Set the dish into another of cold water, and stir until it becomes hard; then make into small balls about the size of marbles, and with a fork roll each one separately in the chocolate, which has, in the meantime, been melted in a bowl over the boiling tea-kettle. Put on brown paper to cool. Flavour with vanilla, if liked. This amount makes about fifty drops. A NEGLECTED FOOD.--One most valuable article of food is strangely neglected in the houses of many working folk--rice. It is cheap, wholesome and nutritious, and it may be cooked in a great variety of ways. All vegetable and farinaceous foods are nutritious, and, when properly prepared, digestible. They are not equal to animal food in nutriment, weight for weight. Chemists say that a pound of meat is about equal in nourishment to a pound and a half of rice or bread. But the cost of a pound of meat is equal to that of four pounds of these. BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES give prompt and effectual relief in all Throat troubles. Mr. Amos R. Peachy, Hungerford, Berkshire, England, writes: "Change of climate (from South Africa) nearly cost me my life, as it produced the greatest prostration from Ulcerated Throat and Bronchial Inflammation. My friends are astonished at the remarkable change in my health from the time I commenced using BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES."

MASHED POTATOES.--Boil, or steam, in the usual way, the necessary quantity of potatoes to serve for two dinners. When soft and mealy, remove them from the pan, turn one-half into a bowl with a pinch of salt, and put them away for next day; the other half must be rubbed through a hot wire sieve. Put a quarter of a pint of milk into a saucepan, and add about an ounce of butter. Set the pan on the fire, and as soon as the milk comes a boil, stir in the sifted potatoes; beat all together briskly over the fire for a minute or two, add salt and pepper to taste, and turn into a very hot dish. They are better when served at once. Scott's Emulsion of Pure COD LIVER OIL WITH HYPOPHOSPHITES. Its Use in Lung Troubles. Dr. HIRAN CADORNETTO, Jacksonville, Fla., says: "I have for the last ten years prescribed your Emulsion, to patients suffering from lung troubles, and they seem to be greatly benefited by its use."
