

Editorials—Continued.

- Pitt, the younger, as a barrister, 18.
 Mortgages and caveats under Land Titles Act, 32, 35.
 Power of Provincial Legislatures to enact statutes affecting the rights of non-resident shareholders in provincial companies, 41, 208, 556, 560.
 The case of Mr. Justice Clement, 50.
 Frauds of infants, 50.
 Defence to specially endorsed writs in Ontario, 58.
 Baron Strathcona and Mount Royal—Notice of his death, 58.
 Ontario Bar Association, 81.
 Manitoba Bar Association, 97.
 Hamilton Law Association, 99.
 Municipal Government by commission, 99.
 Short methods of expediting judicial business in olden times, 109.
 Criminal law—Reminiscences at common law, 112.
 The pedestrian and the street car, 121.
 Intoxication as a defence, 139.
 The ancient rule that baggage is not such unless it accompanies a passenger, 140.
 Bills and notes—Presentment for payment, 151.
 Deportation and exclusion from Canada of British subjects of Oriental origin, 155.
 Repugnant conditions and kindred topics, 161.
 Canadian sidelights and prospective changes in Pennsylvania procedure, 172.
 What constitutes an accident under the Workmen's Compensation Laws, 175.
 Habit-forming drugs—License and control, 186.
 Duty to furnish medical attendance, 187.
 Ontario Workmen's Compensation Act—Provision abolishing actions at law, 201.
 Governmental impairment of a concession granted by the Government—A rejoinder to a critic, 204.
 Legislative powers of Provincial Legislatures, 208.
 Our final tribunal of appeal, 214.
 Amnesia and the law—Loss of memory—Responsibility, 218.
 Sales by personal representatives, 220.
 Modern pleading, 223.
 The law and the bludgeon, 241.
 Actions for personal injury, 244.
 Price maintenance agreements, 244.
 The removal of fixtures, 250.
 Survivors—Careless use of the word, 258.
 Soldiers and the law, 259.
 Real estate agents—Authority, 277.
 Judicial demeanour, 260.
 The Canadian Bar Association, 281.
 Public wrongs and private actions, 293.
 Saneer treatment of mental defects, 297.
 The judicial system of South Africa, 300.
 Exemptions from execution, 321.
 Effect of stipulation in building contracts requiring alterations on extras, 325.
 Lease of rooms, 331.
 Mechanics' lien—Sub-contractors—Percentage, 351.
 Conveyancing symbols, 361.