I have compared with this index the statements given in the Encycl. Britan. (Dobson's Edit. is quoted) and have noted by the single numbers what I believed to be useful for a better understanding.

As of late years (E. B. p. 490) great quantities of wheat were exported from America into Britain, it became an object worthy of the attention of Government to consider how far it was proper to allow of such importation, lest this destructive insect might be brought along with the grain.

No. 1. Mr. Bond* informed that there was a design to export wheat from Philadelphia to England, that the fly had made great depredations,

* This Mr. Bond is not the Dr. Bond quoted before in the minutes of the Amer. Philosoph. Soc. I cannot find out anything more about him.
