at the present day." Such epithets as "grievous perversion of Holy Scriptures," "sad example," "false reading," "false translation," "long since forgotten publication," and the like, together with the charge of frequent mutilating and maining of the Inspired Record, seem to me more calculated to disturb the unlearned and unstable than any of the changes in the Revised Version. But allow me, airs, in conclusion, to express the hope that none of your readers will be led to suppose that the facts and doctrines of the Gospel are in any way weakened or impaired by the changes which have been made. No revision, with whatever freedom it be carried out, can exclude or obscure any of the great truths and facts which we have been taught.

HUBBARD'S NEWSPAPER AND BANK DIRECTORY OF THE WORLD (with Gazetteer and Atlas-combined), containing the names and de-criptions of over thirty-three thousand newspapers and fifteen thousand banks, throughout the world. Embracing, substantially, all newspapers, magazines and quarterlies published upon every Continent, in every Empire, Kingdom, Nation, Province and Island, together with the names and locations of the together with the names and locations of the leading, responsible Banks and Banking Institutions upon the earth. With Maps and Gazetteer information of all the various nations of the world, with especially full descriptions of the several States of the United States of America; the whole making a volume at once unique, computensive, reliable, useful and entertaining, in two Vols., 2593 pages. Edited and published by H. B. Hubbard, Proprietor of the International Newspaper Agency, New Haven, Conn., U. S. A. Price $10.00.

The contents of the title page given above show at a glance how gigantic a work this is. It not only surpasses any-thing of the kind hitherto attempted, but exhibits in its compilation indomitable perseverance, marvellous industry, and an outlay of time and money altoge-ther quite remarkable; while its value to the business world cannot be estimated. No more interesting and comprehensive work has been published, and the enjoyment and advantages we have experienced from its perusal justify us in warmly endorsing it as invaluable to the journalist, banker and wholesale dealer, and in fact, to everybody who would know a great deal that they have not before known upon the important subjects of which the volumes treat.

THE CORPORATE UNITY OF THE CHURCH. A sermon preached before the Synod of the Diocese of Ontario, at its 10th Session, by Rev. Geo. J. Low, Rector of Carleton Place.

We have to thank the author for a copy of his admirable sermon as above. The preacher has very clearly shown what the Church's distinctive principles are, and then he has with no less clearness drawn the distinction between the two divergent lines of Christian thought, the Puritan and the Catholic. He emphasizes the fact that with the one the leading feature is individualism with the other corporate action. He shows how the Catholic position can alone meet the modern attacks upon the Christian Religion, and quotes Principal Grant, of Queen's College, who says, speaking of the inroads of the Goths and Vandals, and subsequently of the Saracens, "The Sacerdotal Church with its outward unity, saved Christianity:" and the preacher adds, "This Witness is true. The Sacerdotal Church in the days of political and social dismemberment, suved Christianity: and by Goo's grace, in these days which are even now upon us of Ecclesiastical and Doctrinal dismemberment, the Sacerdotal Church will save it again.' "The Corporate Unity of the Church will be the bulwark against the shocks of the Infidel (whatever guise, Agnostic or Positive, he may assume) in the present; just as it was the bulwark against the onslaughts of the Unbeliever and Barbarian in the past." The sermon has a great deal in it, and we hope it will be THE TRINITY CHURCH CATEGUISM of the chief things which a Christian ought to know and believe to his soul's health. Revised edi-tion---twentieth thousand. Price toc. in tion—twentieth thousand. Price toc. in paper; 15c. in cloth. E. & J. B. Young & Co., New York.

We have read so many conflicting criticisms in the American Church Press upon this little work, that we were anxious to see and judge for ourselves. And, certainly, we have no disposition to add to the number who see but little to admire and much to condemn in it. On the contrary, we have examined the book very carefully, and with the exception of an expression here and there which, perhaps, might be abused, the examination leads us to speak in terms of the warmest approval of it as being just such a Catechism long needed in our our Sunday Schools. We may confess to a preference in some particulars, for the Quebec Catechisms reviewed in these columns a few weeks ago, but in fulness of detail this is worthy of the highest commenda tion. That its use is not confined to the Trinity Sunday Schools is apparent from the fact that twenty thousand copies have been sold, and unless we greatly over value the work, its circulation will be very largely increased.

SAVED FROM THE POORHOUSE .-- For years David Allingsworth suffered with rheumatism, and notwithstanding the best medical attendance, could not find relief. He came to the Scotia County Poorhouse, and had to be carried into and out of bed on account of his helpless condition. After the failure of all the remedies which had been applied, the directors of the Poorhouse resolved to use St. Jacobs Oil, and this was a fortund resolution; for, with the trial of one bottle, the patient was already better, and when four bottles had been used upon him he could again walk about without the use of a cane. The fact, as above stated, will be verified by the editor of the Portsmouth (Ohio, Correspondent.

CHRONIC DRONCHITIS.

When Bronchitis take the chronic form the attending symptoms become greatly aggravated, and are associated with many of the very worst symptoms of Phthisis, viz, excessive cough, free expectoration, rapid pulse, night tweats, etc., and finally great debility and emaciation. In this stage the diagnosis between this and Tubercular Consumption is sometime very difficult; and it is in this case that Cod Liver Oil, when the sufferers can retain it, is of special advantage; and PUTTNER'S EMULSION OF COD LIVER OIL can always be easily retained. In such a case it is invaluable. Under its use we find the cough cease, expectoration diminish, the pulse regain its regularity and force, night sweats cease, physical strength return, and the emaciation give place to renewed flesh. As this state of things may be a sequence of a cold which has been neglected, it behoves everyone to be particularly careful of himself while laboring under a cold, no matter how slight it may apparently no. The main thing is to check the disease at its very enception, and the best means by which to attain this bd is the early use of PUTTNER'S EMULSION.

It is said that among the Chinese the Larvæ of Insects are used medically to give strength to feeble children; Caterpillar Syrup they consider a specific for Stonchitis, Dried Loads are taken to give tone to the system, while the horis of the rhinocerous, the kines of tigers, the jaws of tigers, and the wirgs of bats all have a place in the Chinese Pharmacoporia. A simple remedy containing well-known ingredients is nothing thought of by a patient, and their doctors seem to be quite of the same mind. How different it is when us outside barbarians in this respect, where the elegant preparation of pleasant taste, composed of well-known and well-tried remedies, such as is embodied in Robinson's Estimators of Conclusion of the state of the patient, but is recommended and largely prevailed by the most intelligent physicians.

THE BEST COUGH REMEDY .-- FROM MRS. ROBERT TURNER, OF UNADILLA, N. Y .- "I can say with the utmost confidence that I think DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY the best cough remedy I have ever known, and believe I owe my present existence to its wonderful curative powers, having at one time been brought very low by a distressing cough, accompanied with spitting of blood, and other symptoms of that dread destroyer, Consumption. I tried many remedies without effect, until a resort to the Balsam was had, which, by the blessing of Divine Providence, soon restored me to health The Balsam is now our resort whenever any of our family is atacked with coughs or colds, and it has never failed to give the desired relief. I keept constantly a supply on hand. During the past ten years I have influnced many persons to make use of this remedy, and always with the same success."

RUDOLE.—The double funeral on Sunday, 5th inst., of Mr. Michael Rudolf and his wife. Isabella, who came to Lincoln in the first year of its history, and died at a ripe old age, within eight hours of each other, on Thursday, was one of the most pathetic and interesting incidents that ever occurred and interesting incidents that ever occurred in this County. Mr. Rudolf had reached the advanced age of $7, ten years older than his wife, to whom he had been married over half a century. He had been gradually failing for several months, his mind and body growing feebler every week, and his death was, of course, not unexpected. About a peak fixed [6] pected. About a week since, Mrs. Rudolf aught an apparently slight cold, which developed into bronchitis, and though it would have been quickly thrown off by a younger and more vigorous patient, she quietly sank under it, and died at 10 o'clock on Thursday morning, 2nd inst. The daughter, who has so faithfully ministered nts of the aged couple in their declining years, supposed her father would not be able to comprehend his loss, as he seemed to notice nothing that was going around him; but she approached his bed-side and told him that mother had gone side and told him that nuther hid gone before him. He understood the message—"Ah, dear! it is a pity she should go first; kiss me, my child," and soon after he breathed his last as peacefully as though going to sleep. Mr. and Mrs. Rudolf were natives of Nova Scotia. They have three children—Mr. A. C. Rudolf, well known in business circles; Mrs. T. S. Grigor, and an unmarried daughter, all residing in this city. A large number of our oldest citizens attended the services at Trinity Church on Sunday, conducted by Rev. C. U. Harris; and they who had so long been united in life, in death were not divided, but were placed side by side in one grave.—Lincolin paper.

F. WRICHT,

MANUFACTURING CHEMIST,

Kensington, High Street London, W.

This Wine is guaranteed to be the juice of the finest grapes of the Core ly imported for his purpose. It is per-fectly free from Alconol, and with the exception of a small percentage of white sugar (which may be omitted at the will of the purchasers, is guaranteed to be Pure Grape Juice. It has stood the test of 18 years' continuous sale in every climate, and is now used in upwards of 1200 Churches of all denominations.

A few testimonials is selected from a pamphlet of upwards of 100, which may be had upon applying to the undermentioned Agents.

From the Rev. Henry Breay, B. A., Vicar of Wells, Somerset, formerly of Birmingham.

"I introduced your wine at St. Matthias Church, Birmingham, about twelve years ago, and it is in use in the new Church of St. Saviour, in the same parish, consecrated May 1, 1874. I introduced it with the churchwarden's to 3.4. I introduced it with the churchwarden's consent immediately upon my coming here. I have always held the opinion, since I first became acquainted with your wine, that the church is under deep obligation to you for the introduction of a wine which may be truly termed 'the fruit of the vine.'

From the Rev. James Yeames, Wesleyan Minister, Kirkstall, Leeds.

"I beg to say we have used your Unfermented Wine for more than a year past with, I believe, general satisfaction, and certainly to the great comfort of some who deplore the presence on the Lord's Table of these brandied chemical compounds commonly called wine. For myself, I can only say I carnestly hope the day will soon come when the pure symbol of the Saviour's blood which He himself approved, 'the fruit of the vine,' and which you supply, will be used in every church."

From the Rev. Geo. Hinds, Congregational Minister, Leeds.

"I have used your Unfermented Wine for nearly fourteen years, that is to say, during the whole course of my ministry. I have invariably refused to administer or receive the cup when the wine has been intoxicating, because I have deemed it inconsistent with the nature of the sacred service and the terms of the institution.

From the Rev. Joseph Ferguson,

Primitive Methodist Minister, Birmingham, "I am pleased to record my gratitude to you for the manufacture of your Unfermented Wine. It has been introduced into some of the churches under my charge, and is acceptable to Christians of all shades of opinion relative to temperance. I hope, for the sake of peace, it will be speedily adopted in all churches."
