DR. PARKHURST'S NEW WORD

Dr. Parkhurst has coined a new word, and its aptness and clever construction are quite likely to make it famous. The eminent reformer's word is "Andromania," and of it he says:

"There is an element in the feminine world that is suffering from what I shall venture to call 'Andromania.' The word is not an English one, for the reason, I suppose, that the English language makers never suppose that we should need such a term. It is constructed on the same principle as the word 'Angliomania,' which means a passionate aping of everything that is English. 'Andromania' means similarly, a passionate aping of everything that is mannish."

Dr. Parkhurst makes his new word serve as the title for his first article in the next issue of The Ladies' Home Journal, and uses it for a vigorous treatment of the type of women for whom he invented it.

To be a constant reader of Littell's Living Age, is to keep a mind well stored with the best foreign literature of the day. To have read it all one's life, if one has reached maturity, is to have a knowledge of philosophy, art, science and literature, which is of itself a liberal education. Current numbers show the same judicious selection, the same agreeable variety, and the same general excellencies which have always marked this unique and sterling publication.

Any reader desiring to be in touch with foreign periodical literature cannot do better than subscribe for this invaluable magazine. A prospectus with special offers to new subscribers may be obtained by addressing LITTELL & Co., Boston.

As sugar is not only sweet in itself, but sweeteneth other things where-with it is mixed, so love is not only in itself delightful, but maketh all the ways of God both light and delightful, light to bear and delightful to embrace.—Hayward.

Nothing proves the truth of Religion so much as joy. There is no argument in favour of Christianity so strong as the peace within the heart of a Christian.
