VILLE MARIE CONVENT.

Gala Day for the Scholars - Annual Distribution of Prizes-Monkland's Successful Scholars, Graduates, Etc.

On Wednesday morning last Ville Marie convent presented a brilliant scene of bustle and activity rarely encountered at this quiet, but fashionable, retreat. Ville Marie ranks amongst the highest educational institutions on the American continent, and is surpassed by none for educational facilities, or beautiful location; but of this more anon.

The cause of the unusual excitation was owing to this being the last day of the scholastic year, when the pupils in their hall assembled were to be rewarded in proportion to the extent of studies acquired during the preceding year. From an early hour the stately barouche to the chartered carriage rolled up to the grand entrance, and deposited the fond parents who had, in a number of cases, traveled considerable distances to witness the triumph of their children. They were received at the portals of the institution by the reverend mother superior, and ushered into the tasty hall, where the distribution was to take place. The hall was beautifully decorated, and reflected the recherche tastes of the reverend sisters who had charge of the ornamentation. The floor was concealed by a rich Brussels carpet in which the foot sank at every step, vases of odorous flowers imparted to the air a delicious perfume, which served to dispel the lassitude and weariness induced by the sultry atmosphere.

THE PRELIMINARY PROCEEDINGS

were opened by Rev. Father Dowd by an address, in which he commended to the attention of his heatars the power of duty, and friends, and departed for home after bidding were opened by Rev. Father Dowd by an adclosed his remarks by saying :- If the world adieu to their kind instructresses. deserts you adhere to your duty, trust in God, and you will remain immeasurably superior to the poor mortal who now stands aloof from is eligibly situated on Mount Royal, in the you, but who will yet lament his neglect in torgetting God's commands. Be guided by an occupies a prominent position, and is situated eternal faith; let "duty before anything at a convenient distance from the main road. throughout life will be ensured.

presented their compliments in a sweet poem written for the distribution day. The pupils then sang a cantata arranged expressly for this celebration to the accompaniment of four harps, four pianos and a like number of guitars. The effect was sublime: the soft music of the string instruments, blending with the carefully cultivated tones of the singers, served almost to transport the audience to the realms of the blessed. It would have but required a person to close his eyes to imagine himself surrounded by the heavenly choristers melodiously pouring forth their praises to the Most High. At the conclusion of this admirable musical execution the prizes were awarded.

Second medal of same class, bearing marks of excellence with it, was secured by Miss Dowling.

As each successive graduate appeared to claim their premiums they were crowned with wreaths of laurels.

After the distribution had taken place, the graduates, accompanied by their friends, adourned to the chapel of the institution, where the crowned graduates deposited their laurels at the shrine of the Blessed Virgin. The chapel is dedicated to the Immaculate Conception, and is a perfect art gem.

The altar is constructed of highly polished Italian white marble, supported on each side surmounts the tabernacle. It weighs 300 presented it to the convent in the month of oil; the colors used are unobtrusive, and harmonize with the general surroundings. The students in chapel are furnished with black walnut prie-dieus upholstered in plush. On this occasion the altar was one blaze of light; over three hundred gas burners shed their brilliant rays, while innumerable colored lamps sparkled and flashed back from the polished panels their radiant hues. The harmonious strains of six organs, pianos, harps and guitars filled the hall with melody, and inspired the assembly with an idea of the ability of the fair musicians. The performers appeared enwrapt in the work, and succeeded in eclipsing all former efforts, even excelling the rendition in the hall. The graduates then deposited their wreaths at the feet of the Blessed Virgin, and after singing municipality of Notre Dame de Grace. It else" be your motto, and your success Access to the grounds is obtained by means of two avenues diverging from the main entrance At the conclusion of his remarks, Rev. to the Core St. Antoine and Cote St. Luc Father Dowd was presented with an address rouds. Beautiful grounds, consisting of farm in French and English, recited by thirty of land, flower gardens, recreation grounds, and the pupils. The English address was composed for this occasion, and was delivered as a dialogue. The French pupils sive view of the loveliest prospect in Canada can be obtained. In the river the southern verdure-clad peak of Mount Royal ascends abruptly, while nestling at its base are the cottages of the farm hands and other out-door employees.

We quietly saunter through the cool depths of the forest, and in a few minutes emerge on the banks of a pellucid lake, artificially constructed to retain the water from numerous springs. Boats, for the convenience of pupils, float calmly on the rippling surface. Returning to the convent we are ushered throughout the lower portion by a cicerone, who explains to as the applied uses of the different apartments. In the short space of a newspaper article, it would be impossible to mention even a tithe of the many inducements offered to parents for the education of their children. While the aesthetic tastes of the pupils are carefully catered to and developed, the more modern and essential portion of every-day life is not neglected. the domestic economy and culinary class young ladies are instructed in plain sewing and cooking. They are also initiated into the mysterious composition of many dainty dishes, and imbued with a spirit of economical management. A pupil who successfully completes this course is competent to take charge of a host of domestics, or, if needs must, pre-pare her own meals. Washing, ironing, and the other necessary adjuncts of civilized life are not forgotten. The refectory is a large bright apartment, well ventilated and capable of ssating several hundred pubils. Throughout the day all was apparent disorder, the pupils were busily engaged in packing their trunks preparatory to returning home. In the evening the young ladies, who had not yet departed, we to be seen visiting their favorite nooks and resting places in the garden, which had become endeared to them by many pleasant days of companionship. The building is illuminated throughout by gas, manufactured on the premises. The sisters who conduct Ville Marie are connected with the Congregation de Notre Dame. An immense building now in course of construction at Monklands, is being rapidly pushed forward to completion. It is expected to be ready for occupation in September or October, when it will be occupied as the mother house of the order, and the present headquarters on Notre Dame and St. Jean Baptiste streets will be closed. The inauguration of the new building will be made the occasion of a grand ceremony, as the ladies will also celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of the establishment of the order.

Special Notice.

We print to-day in our advertising columns recommendations of the most celebrated living planists and musicians in regard to the New York Weber Piano, which for perfection of tone, action, power and durability, are said to be inappronehed by any maker in the world. A late number of the Iondon Musical Record says that even there Albert Weber Finds in the front rank of all manufacturers. They are used by a tists of the Italian and Her Majesty's Operas—by all great musicians and by the leading Convents in the United States. The great planist, Ma same bive-King, says "The Weber Plano is the finest instrument I ever placed my fingers on." The Centendal judges say "They were the finest Planos they had ever heard or seen." Many of our leading citizens are taking advantage of the present opportunity to procure them before the advance in duties adds so much to their price. Sold wholesale at the New York Plano Co.'s store, 183 St. James street.

Epps's Cocoa—Grateful, and Comforting.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well selected cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtie maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever these is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette. Impurities of the Blood. The decided alterative action of Robinson's Phosphorized Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Lacu-Phosphate of Lime, adapts it in a remarkable degree as a blood purifier well worthy of the trial of those suffering from a diseased condition of the circulating fluid. The unsightly blotches, pustules and pimples that disflaver the face and neck, as well as other portions of the body, of so many persons, are indications of a diseased state of the blood induced by, as well as associated with, deprayed nutrition, feeble digestion and imperfect assimilation. The continued use of the Phosphorized Emulsion invariably cleauses the blood from all these impurities and restores the system to a state of healthfulness that is manifested in increased constitutional vigor, mental activity, and lightness and buoyancy of spirits.

Letter of Thanks.

Boston, June 23rd, 1879. Mr. Frank Alex, trav. agent of the South Eastern R. R.

Sis,-Allow us in behalf of all the students of the Ottawa college to tender you our heartfelt thanks for the unusually pleasant trip we enjoyed over your line from Ottawa to Boston. The students are loud in praise, not only of the excellencies of the line itself, but also of the politeness and kind attention shown them by the conductors along the whole route. Willingly do they confess it to be the most pleasant route they have ever taken from Ottawa to Boston. But while the boys extol by columns of porphyry and jasper. A deli-the road and its employees as a whole, to you, cately sculptured statue of the Blessed Virgin Mr. Alex, they tender their greatest thanks for your many marks of kindness along the pounds, and was the gift of twenty-three pupils of the second course of honor, who again next September, when we return to May.
